

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Preface	viii
Notes on the Contributors	ix
Introduction	xi
1 What George Eliot Saw in Europe: The Evidence of her Journals Margaret Harris	1
2 Cultural Synthesis in George Eliot's Middlemarch Hans Ulrich Seeber	17
3 George Eliot and the World as Language Elizabeth Deeds Ermarth	33
4 George Eliot, George Henry Lewes, and Comparative Anatomy Nancy Henry	44
5 The Miserable Marriages in Middlemarch , Anna Karenina , and Effi Briest Barbara Hardy	64
6 Mr Dagley's Midnight Darkness: Uncovering the German Connection in George Eliot's Fiction Nancy Cervetti	84
7 George Eliot and the Germanic 'Musical Magus' Delia da Sousa Correa	98

- 8 Daniel Deronda and Allegories of Empire
Derek Miller 113
- 9 'The Interest of Spanish Sights': From Ronda to Daniel Deronda
Bonnie McMullen 123
- 10 'Animated Nature': The Mill on the Floss
Beryl Gray 138
- 11 From Reality to Fiction: Benefits and Hazards in Continental
Education
Linda K. Robertson 156
- 12 Renaissance and Risorgimento in Romola
Tom Winnifrith 166
- 13 Greek Scholarship and Renaissance Florence in George Eliot's
Romola
Lesley Gordon 179
- 14 'Too intensely French for my taste': Victor Hugo as Read by George Eliot and George Henry Lewes
Shoshana Milgram Knapp 190
- 15 George Eliot, Balzac and Proust
John Rignall 210
- 16 Playing with Shawls: George Eliot's Use of Corinne in *The Mill
on the Floss*
Gill Frith 225