

Contents

Acknowledgments	7
Introduction: The Victorian Context	17
The Poetic Tradition	19
Stylistic Models	26
Bagehot on Ornate Style	38
Poetry of Illusion and the Naturalist Ideal	41
1. Rites of Passage: The Poet of Sensation	51
Oblique Vision	53
Dangers of Directness	55
Refined Sensation	59
2. The Elegiac Mode: Enlarged and Nuanced Meanings	73
Epitaphs and Prophecies	74
Elegiac Reflections	77
Enlarged and Nuanced Meanings	84
3. Dramatic and Narrative Indirection	98
Dramatic Indirection: The Monologues	99
Narrative Indirection: The Princess	114
4. The Autobiography of a Mourner: In Memoriam	132
The Rhetoric of Confession	133
Consolation and Catharsis	138
The Lucid Veil	156
5. Lightning under the Stars: Maud	168
Verbal Therapy and Lyric Power	168
The Ostentation of Our Love	184

6. Terror and Innocence: Idylls of the King	192
The Panoramic Stage	193
"The Holy Grail"	202
Recantation and Renewal	209
7. The Sage and the Seer: The Poet of Reflection	224
Qualified Political Assertion	225
Visions of God	230
Through a Glass Darkly	236
8. The Farther Shore: The Late Elegies	251
Ceremonial Richness	252
The Plain Style	257
Conclusion: Achievements of the Style	273
Features of the Style	275
Psychological Implications	292
Achievements of the Style	297
A Bibliographical Essay	307
Index	333