

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Note on Transliteration xiii

Abbreviations xv

Introduction: Understanding the “Muslim Question” and Its Changing Contexts 1

Part 1. The Emergence of the Muslim Question 19

1. The Crimean War and Its Aftermath: The Question of Muslim Loyalty and Alienation 21
2. The Challenges of Apostasy to Islam 33
3. “What Do We Need from Muslims?” Combating Ignorance, Alienation, and Tatarization 54
4. “In Asia We Come as Masters”: The Challenge of the Civilizing Mission in Turkestan 84
5. Dilemmas of Regulation and Rapprochement: The Problem of Muslim Religious Institutions 106

Part 2. The Muslim Question during the Era of Mass Politics 135

6. Challenges of Revolution and Reform 137
7. The Muslim Question in the Aftermath of the Revolution 154
8. “Solving” the Muslim Question 170
9. World War I 195

Conclusion: Could the Muslim Question Have Been Solved? 215

Notes 225

Bibliography 265

Index 290