

Contents

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Series preface                              | ix |
| 1. Getting to know the children             | 1  |
| Introducing some of the children                   | 2         |
| Introducing some of the questions                  | 8         |
| 2. Models of childhood disorders            | 11 |
| Biological models                                  | 11        |
| Behaviorism: The learning models                   | 15        |
| Cognitive model                                    | 20        |
| Psychodynamic model                                | 23        |
| Systems models                                     | 28        |
| Diathesis-stress model                             | 30        |
| Changing times                                     | 30        |
| Summary  | 31        |
| 3. Issues facing the disorders of childhood | 33 |
| Developmental psychopathology                      | 34        |
| Parenting and family factors                       | 35        |
| Assessing and classifying childhood disorders      | 39        |
| Treating disorders of childhood                    | 47        |
| Summary  | 49        |
| 4. Conduct disorders                        | 51 |
| Phenomenology and classification                   | 51        |
| Causes   | 55        |
| The course of conduct disorder                     | 59        |
| Treatments   | 60        |
| Summary  | 64        |

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| 5. Attention-deficit hyperactivity disorder     | 65  |
| Phenomenology and classification                       | 65         |
| Causes   | 70         |
| The course of ADHD                                     | 73         |
| Medications and psychosocial programs for ADHD         | 76         |
| Summary  | 81         |
| 6. Anxiety disorders                            | 83  |
| Normal emotional development                           | 83         |
| Phenomenology and classification                       | 85         |
| Causal forces  | 90         |
| Treatment  | 92         |
| Summary  | 94         |
| 7. Depression                                   | 95  |
| Phenomenology and classification                       | 95         |
| Causal forces  | 98         |
| The course of childhood depression                     | 100        |
| Treatment  | 101        |
| Summary  | 102        |
| 8. Eating disorders                             | 103 |
| Feeding disorders of infancy or early childhood        | 103        |
| Anorexia nervosa                                       | 104        |
| Bulimia nervosa  | 109        |
| Treatment  | 112        |
| Summary  | 114        |
| 9. Mental retardation and learning disabilities | 115 |
| Mental retardation                                     | 115        |
| Learning disabilities                                  | 128        |
| Summary  | 132        |
| 10. Pervasive developmental disorders           | 135 |
| Autism   | 136        |
| What can be done about self-injury?                    | 150        |
| Other pervasive developmental disorders                | 152        |
| Summary  | 154        |
| 11. Tics and elimination disorders              | 155 |
| Tic disorders  | 155        |
| Enuresis and encopresis                                | 157        |
| Summary  | 159        |

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| 12. Questions for your consideration | 161 |
| What would you do?                          | 162        |
| Summary                                     | 169        |
| Suggested readings                   | 171 |
| References                           | 173 |
| Author index                         | 211 |
| Subject index                        | 223 |