

Contents

About the Author	page	vii
Preface		ix
Acknowledgments		xiii
1. Chain Reaction: Quality, Productivity, Lower Costs, Capture the Market		1
2. Principles for Transformation of Western Management		18
3. Diseases and Obstacles		97
4. When? How Long?		149
5. Questions to Help Managers		156
6. Quality and the Consumer		167
7. Quality and Productivity in Service Organizations		183
8. Some New Principles of Training and Leadership		248
9. Operational Definitions, Conformance, Performance		276
10. Standards and Regulations		297
11. Common Causes and Special Causes of Improvement. Stable System.		309
12. More Examples of Improvement Downstream		371

13.	Some Disappointments in Great Ideas	388
14.	Two Reports to Management	397
15.	Plan for Minimum Average Total Cost for Test of Incoming Materials and Final Product	407
16.	Organization for Improvement of Quality and Productivity	465
17.	Some Illustrations for Improvement of Living	475
18.	Appendix: Transformation in Japan	486
	Index	493