

CONTENTS

List of Contributors	vii
Introduction: Toward a Psychology of Everyday Living Charlotte Hojlholt and Ernst Schaub	1
1 Conduct of Everyday Life: Implications for Critical Psychology Ole Dreier	15
2 Conduct of Everyday Life in Subject-Oriented Sociology: Concept and Empirical Research Karin Jurczyk, G. Gunter Löß and Margit Wehnich	34
3 Conduct of Everyday Life as a Basic Concept of Critical Psychology Klaus Holzkamp	65
4 The Maze and the Labyrinth: Walking, Imagining and the Education of Attention Tim Ingold	99
5 Embodying the Conduct of Everyday Life: From Subjective Reasons to Privilege Thomas Teo	111

vi Contents

6	The Ordinary in the Extra Ordinary: Everyday Living Textured by Homelessness Darín Hodgins, Mohi Rua, Pita King and Tiniwai Te Whetu	124
7	Situated Inequality and the Conflictuality of Children's Conduct of Life Charlotte Hoffholt	145
8	"There is No Right Life in the Wrong One": Recognizing this Dilemma is the First Step Out of it Ute Ostkamp	164
9	Everyday Life in the Shadow of the Debt Economy C. George Caffentzis	176
10	From Crisis to Commons: Reproductive Work, Affective Labor and Technology in the Transformation of Everyday Life Silvia Fedrizzi	192
11	Frozen Fluidity: Digital Technologies and the Transformation of Students' Learning and Conduct of Everyday Life Frost Schaubé and Athanasios Mavrikis	205
12	The Politics of Hope: Memory-Work as a Method to Study the Conduct of Everyday Life Erigo Hane	226
13	Collaborative Research with Children: Exploring Contradictory Conditions of the Conduct of Everyday Life Dore Kuscholt	241
14		259