

The Brideshead Generation

EVELYN WAUGH AND HIS FRIENDS

Humphrey Carpenter

WEIDENFELD AND NICOLSON

London

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Author's Note	ix
PART I 1918–1922: Eton Candle	1
1 '... Thought They Must Be Foreigners'	3
2 Come Nearer, Child	12
3 Suspended Boyhood	27
PART II 1922–1924: Et in Arcadia	33
1 Oxford Broom	35
2 '... Longed to Remain Myself and Yet Be Accepted ...'	46
3 Hypocrites	70
4 Dear Private Giggles of a Private World	88
5 He Embodied Authority	107
6 A Dream Too Agreeable	112
PART III 1924–1929: Bright Young People	129
1 Struggle for Detachment	131
2 A Comic Novel	150
3 A Sort of Cumulative Futility	164

Contents

PART IV 1930–1934: In Search of a City	203
1 A New Order and Another Christendom	205
2 Remote People	227
3 Very Grim	244
PART V 1934–1939: The Gentleman's House	257
1 Berners Betjeman Country	259
2 A Fascist Tract	274
3 Setting Myself Up as a Squire	289
4 Ourselves Against the World	310
PART VI 1939–1945: Arcadia Revisited	331
1 Bugged About	333
2 A Total Misfit	344
3 Mag Op	354
4 Up in the Best-seller List	373
PART VII 1945–1966: Contra Mundum	381
1 Down with the Horrible Counter-Honnish Labour Party	383
2 Back to Prep School Again	405
3 Acute P.M.	421
4 The Death Wish	444
Appendix A Dramatis personae	477
Appendix B Bibliography	484
Appendix C Notes on Sources	490
Appendix D Acknowledgements	504
Index	507