

Emily Dickinson at Home

Proceedings of the Third International Conference of the Emily Dickinson International Society
in South Hadley, Mount Holyoke College,
12-15 August 1999

Edited by Gudrun M. Grabher and Martina Antretter

WVT Wissenschaftlicher Verlag Trier

Contents

Gudrun M. Grabher and Martina Antretter

Introduction

Shira Wolosky

Modest Selves: Dickinson's Critique of American Identity 1

Helen Shoobridge

Dickinson the Mysterique:

A Revision of the Anxiety of Influence and Authority 13

Nancy Johnston

The Loaf and the Crumb: Dickinson's Aesthetics of Bread Making 35

Thomas Gardner

Enlarging Loneliness: Marilynne Robinson's

Housekeeping as a Reading of Emily Dickinson 51

Daneen Wardrop

"The Ethiop Within": Emily Dickinson and Slavery 71

Sylvia N. Mikkelsen

Emily Dickinson, Two Twentieth-Century "Sisters"

and the Problem of Feminist Aesthetics 89

Carolyn S. Moran

"September's Baccalaureate": Emily Dickinson on the Philosophy of Aging 103

Richard S. Ellis

"A little East of Jordan":

Human-Divine Encounter in Dickinson and the Hebrew Bible 123

Daniel H. Strait

Emily Dickinson and the "Balsam Word" 143

Jane D. Eberwein

Aaron Colton's Ministry to a Poet 153

Brad Ricca

Emily Dickinson: Learn'd Astronomer 169

Chanthana Chaichit

Emily Dickinson at Home: The Paradox of the Wandering Mind 179

Masako Takeda

The Belle of Japan: The Popularity of Emily Dickinson in Japan 187

Cynthia L. Hallen

At Home in Language: Emily Dickinson's Rhetorical Figures 201

Susanne Shapiro

Secrets of the Pen: Emily Dickinson's Handwriting 223

John F. McDermott

A Computerized Word Analysis of the Master Letters 239

Rolf Amsler and Margaret H. Freeman

Emily Dickinson's Double Language:
An Introduction to the Writings of Hans W. Luescher 249

Eleanor Heginbotham

"Whatever it is, she has tried it":
Contemporary Poets on Editing -- and Dickinson's Fascicles 267

Notes on Contributors 289