

WILLIAM FAULKNER'S YOKNAPATAWPHA

“A Kind of Keystone in the Universe”

ELIZABETH M. KERR

New York
FORDHAM UNIVERSITY PRESS
1985

Contents

Abbreviations	vi
1 Themes and Thematic Symbols	1
I • Conscious and Unconscious Symbolism	1
II • Symbols, Images, and Archetypes	5
III • The Natural World as Symbol	12
IV • The Man-made World as Symbol	20
V • Personal and Family Symbols and Symbolic Tableaux	31
2 The Mythology of Yoknapatawpha	85
I • Myth and Mythmakers in the Modern World	85
II • The Traditional Myth of the South	95
III • Polarity of Yoknapatawpha Themes	106
IV • Faulkner's Mythology of Yoknapatawpha	114
V • Family Myths	126
VI • Heroines and Heroes	158
3 The Quest for Freedom	239
I • Approach to Total Meaning	239
II • Faulkner's Individualistic Christian Humanism	249
III • Existential Aspects of Faulkner's Christian Humanism	263
IV • Existential Elements in Faulkner's Yoknapatawpha Chronicles	282
V • Time, Motion, Change	366
Afterword	403
Bibliography/Index	411