

FROM THE AURORAL DARKNESS

The Life and Poetry of Robert Hayden

by

John Hatcher

GEORGE RONALD OXFORD

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Foreword	xi
Part I. FROM PARADISE VALLEY TO POET LAUREATE	I
1. Paradise Valley, 1913-1930	5
2. The Apprenticeship, 1930-1940	10
3. The Poet Comes of Age, 1941-1946	15
4. The Early Years at Fisk, 1946-1960	19
5. The Crucial Years, 1960-1969	31
6. The Poet Laureate, 1969-1980	41
Part II. THE MINOTAURS OF EDICT	51
7. The Problem of a 'Black Aesthetic'	55
8. The Birth of the Hayden Stand	64
9. The Controversy	75
Part III. THE CONTINUITY OF HAYDEN'S POETRY I	91
10. Heart-Shape in the Dust , 1940	95
11. The Lion and the Archer , 1948	106
12. Figure of Time , 1955	115
13. A Ballad of Remembrance , 1962	126
14. Selected Poems , 1966	143
Part IV. THE CONTINUITY OF HAYDEN'S POETRY II	155
15. Words in the Mourning Time , 1970	159
16. The Night-Blooming Cereus , 1973	180
17. Angle of Ascent , 1975	193
18. American Journal , 1978	208
19. American Journal , 1982	220
Part V. THE POET OF PERFECT PITCH	235
20. The Poet and the Poetic Process	240
21. Shaping the Poem	253
22. Image and Symbol	267
23. The Finishing Touch	281

Afterword	297
Appendix I: List of poems quoted in their entirety in the text	299
Appendix II: The Tables of Contents of Hayden's volumes of poetry	300
Bibliography	309
Notes	312
Index of Poems	337
Index of Names	340