

Table of contents

Abbreviations and acronyms	7
Executive summary	9
Introduction	13
Action 12	13
Work to date on this issue	14
What this report covers	15
Bibliography	15
Chapter 1. Overview of mandatory disclosure	17
Objectives	18
Basic elements of mandatory disclosure	18
Design principles	19
Comparison with other disclosure initiatives	20
Co-ordination with other disclosure and compliance tools	22
Effectiveness of mandatory disclosure	23
Bibliography	30
Chapter 2. Options for a model mandatory disclosure rule	31
Who has to report	33
What has to be reported	36
Hallmarks	39
When information is reported	49
Other obligations to be placed on the promoters or users	53
Consequences of compliance and non-compliance	56
Procedural/tax administration matters	60
Bibliography	66
Chapter 3. International tax schemes	67
Application of existing disclosure rules	68
Recommendation on an alternative approach to the design of a disclosure regime for international tax schemes	70
Example – intra-group imported mismatch arrangement	75
Bibliography	78
Chapter 4. Information sharing	79
Developments in information exchange	80
Transparency and information exchange under the Action Plan	80
Expansion and reorganisation of the JITSIC Network under the FTA	81
Exchange of information on aggressive tax planning and other BEPS risks	82
Bibliography	82

Annex A. Further discussion on availability in the United Kingdom	83
Annex B. Compatibility between self-incrimination and mandatory disclosure	85
Annex C. Interaction of penalty regimes and disclosure requirement	87
Annex D. Information power in the UK DOTAS regime	89
Annex E. Comparison between different countries with mandatory disclosure rules	91

Figures

Figure 1.1 Gifting tax shelters – participants and donations (Canada, 2006-13)	28
Figure 1.2 Annual disclosure by hallmark type (South Africa, 2009-14)	28
Figure 3.1 Intra-group imported mismatch arrangement	75

Table

Table 1.1 Comparison of Mandatory Disclosure Rules (MDR) with other regimes	24
---	----

Boxes

Box 2.1 Options for “who has to report”	33
Box 2.2 Draft definition of promoter or advisor in applicable legislation	35
Box 2.3 Multi-step or single step approach to defining the scope of a disclosure regime	37
Box 2.4 Hallmarks for confidentiality	42
Box 2.5 Hallmarks for contingency fee/premium fee	43
Box 2.6 Options for designing generic hallmarks	45
Box 2.7 Hallmarks for loss transaction	48
Box 2.8 Options for timing of promoter disclosure	49
Box 2.9 Options for identifying scheme users	53
Box 2.10 Draft disclosure form A (for scheme user)	62
Box 2.11 Draft disclosure form B (for scheme promoter or advisor)	62