

AFRICAN CROSSROADS

Intersections between History and Anthropology in Cameroon

Edited by Ian Fowler and David Zeitlyn

Berghahn Books
Providence • Oxford

TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of Figures	vii
Foreword. The Catalyst: Chilver at the Crossroads Shirley Ardener	ix
Preface Ian Fowler and David Zeitlyn	xvii
Introduction: The Grassfields and the Tikar Ian Fowler and David Zeitlyn	1
1. The Person, Ethnicity and the Problem of 'Identity' in West Africa Richard Fardon	17
2. Political Relations on the Eastern Marches of Adamawa in the Late Nineteenth Century: A Problem of Interpretation Philip Burnham	45
3. Mythic Transformation and Historical Continuity: the Duala of Cameroon and German Colonialism, 1884–1914 Ralph A. Austen	63
4. Imperialisms at the Century's End: Moghamo Relations with Bali-Nyonga and Germany, 1889–1908 Robert O'Neil	81
5. Nso' Military Organisation and Warfare in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Verkijika G. Fanso and B. Chem-Langhêê	101
6. Rebellion, Defection and the Position of Male Cadets: a Neglected Category Jean-Pierre Warnier	115
7. Catholicism & Nso' Traditional Beliefs Joseph Lukong Banadzem	125
8. Pursue to Attain : a Royal Religion Claude Tardits	141
9. Political Dress: German-Style Military Attire and Colonial Politics in Bamum Christraud M. Geary	165
Notes on Contributors	193
Bibliography	197