

Jennifer Boyd

Frank Norris

Spatial Form and Narrative Time

PETER LANG

New York • San Francisco • Bern • Baltimore
Frankfurt am Main • Berlin • Wien • Paris

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter One:
Frank Norris and Spatial Form.....	1
Spatial Form: The Tradition.....	3
A Background For Norris's Pictorialism.....	8
Norris and Zola: Impressionism as Spatial Form.....	14
Chapter Two:
Vandover and the Brute : Diptychs and Dynamos.....	21
The Structure of Vandover and the Brute	24
The Story Spatialized:
The Painting, The Shipwreck, and the Opera.....	33
Vandover's "Message".....	39
Chapter Three:
McTeague : Spatial Forms and Forms in Space.....	43
Movements Through Space.....	45
Dualism as a Device of Structure and Characterization.....	49
Pictorialism, Repetition, and Parallelism.....	59
Chapter Four:
The Octopus : Figures on a Map.....	68
Space and Time in the Opening Chapter.....	69
The Theory in Practice: The Rest of The Octopus , Book I.....	79
Book II of The Octopus : The Map Expanded.....	85
Norris and the Octopus.....	105
Chapter Five:
The Drama of The Pit : Figures on the Stage.....	111
Atemporality through Literary Allusion.....	114
The Novel's Structure: The Pit as a Play.....	118
Repetition and Pictorialism.....	128
Conclusion:
Norris Reassessed.....	135
Bibliography.....	141
Index.....	151