

Contents

	PAGE
Introduction
RORY LOUGHNANE, ANDREW J. POWER, and PETER SILLITOE	1
The Caroline Globe
ANTHONY PARR	12
Reputation and the Red Bull Theatre, 1625–42
RORY LOUGHNANE	29
Actors, Plays and Performances in the Indoor Playhouses, 1625–42: Boy Players, Leading Men and the Caroline Ensemble
LUCY MUNRO	51
Caroline Court Drama: Forming History
LAUREN SHOHEP	69
‘And afterward to his pallace of Westminster, there to solace himself’: Rediscovering the Progresses of Charles I
PETER SILLITOE	87
The Closure of the Theatres
GABRIEL EGAN	103
Classical Liberty and Cavalier Poetics: The Politics of Literary Community in Caroline London from Jonson to Marvell
NICHOLAS MCDOWELL	120
The Caroline Grotesque in Verse: Robert Herrick, Richard Flecknoe and John Taylor
L. E. SEMLER	137
Heaven and Hell in Robert Herrick’s Body of Work
ANDREW J. POWER	156
Symbolic Consumption and the Rebellious Belly: Demystifying Hunger in Caroline Poetry
STELLA ACHILLEOS	174
Milton and Caroline Church Government
ELIZABETH SAUER	196
The Caroline Sermon: Texts, Contexts, and Challenges
MARK SWEETNAM	215
Mars Rising: Army Pamphlets and London Culture post-1642
VIMALA C. PASUPATHI	232
‘To sleep, perchance to Dream’: The Politics of Travel in the 1630s
CLAIRE JOWITT	249
Bibliography	265