

Contents

A Note on the Author	vii
General Editors' Preface	ix
Preface and Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction: Battles, Society and Entertainment	1
1 Portrait of an Industry: Producing Popular Music, 1914–1918	7
A Star in Focus 1: Harry Lauder – ‘Scottish ambassador’?	33
2 A Patchwork of Genres	37
A Star in Focus 2: Vesta Tilley – the Woman Who Played Men	67
3 The Songs and Their Content	71
A Star in Focus 3: Marie Lloyd – ‘Our Marie’	109
4 ‘If you were the only girl in the world’: Women, Men and Love in Music-hall Song	113
A Star in Focus 4: Harry Champion – ‘the spirit of the poorer parts of London’	141
5 Songs about the War: Elite Voices and People’s Voices	145
6 ‘I want to go home’: Soldiers’ Songs and Other Non-commercial Songs	177
Conclusions	215
Appendix: A Political, Military and Cultural Timeline of the Great War	219
Bibliography	233
Index	247