

Critical Perspectives on Indo-Caribbean Women's Literature

Edited by

Joy Mahabir and Mariam Pirbhai

Contents

Acknowledgements ix

Introduction: Tracing an Emerging Tradition 1
JOY MAHABIR AND MARIAM PIRBHAI

Part I Indo-Caribbean Localities, Feminist Poetics

- 1 Recasting Jahaji-Bhain: Plantation History and the Indo-Caribbean Women's Novel in Trinidad, Guyana and Martinique 25
MARIAM PIRBHAI
- 2 Domestic Altars, Female Avatars: Hindu Wives and Widows in Lakshmi Persaud's Raise the Lanterns High 48
SUPRIYA M. NAIR
- 3 "Music and a Story": Sound Writing in Ramabai Espinet's The Swinging Bridge 70
NJELLE HAMILTON
- 4 Carnival Poetics and Politics: Lakshmi Persaud's For the Love of My Name and Niala Maharaj's Like Heaven 93
J. VIJAY MAHARAJ
- 5 The Broad Breast of the Land: Indo-Caribbean Ecofeminism and Mahadai Das 121
LETIZIA GRAMAGLIA AND JOSEPH JACKSON

Part II

Transnational Realities, Diasporic Subjectivities

| | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 6 | The Kala Pani Imaginary: A Survey of Indo-Caribbean Women's Poetry JOY MAHABIR | 141 |
| 7 | Interrogating the Presence of the Double Diaspora in Asian- and Indo-Caribbean Women Writers for Children KAREN SANDS-O'CONNOR | 162 |
| 8 | Indo-Trinidadian Identities and Sexuality: A Survey of Shani Mootoo's Fiction FRANK BIRBALSINGH | 182 |
| 9 | Illicit Intimacies, the Ramayana and Synaesthetic Remembering in Shani Mootoo's Valmiki's Daughter DONNA MCCORMACK | 203 |
| 10 | Revising Female Indian Memory: Ramabai Espinet's Reconstruction of an Indo-Trinidadian Diaspora in The Swinging Bridge RODOLPHE SOLBIAC | 229 |
| | List of Contributors | 253 |
| | Index | 257 |