

UNDERSTANDING

Contemporary
Irish Fiction and Drama

Margaret Hallissy

The University of South Carolina Press

Contents

Series Editor's Preface ix

Introduction i

1. "Nothing can happen nowhere": A Place in the World 8
2. Just Tell Them the Story: Tradition Bearing 29
3. "The abuse of language": Irish, English, American 47
4. An Gorta Mór: Hunger as Reality and Metaphor 64
5. "Terrible beauty": The Easter Rising 85
6. The Big House: Symbol and Target 103
7. "Fanatic heart": A Legacy of Violence 123
8. "Lots of fun at Finnegans Wake": The Drinking Life 138
9. "But come ye back": The Yank 155

Conclusion 174

Notes 177

Bibliography 187

Index 195