

CONTENTS

Preface	7
1 Introduction	9
2 Hypotheses	19
3 Background knowledge	23
4 Relative truth	30
5 Main types of plausible inferences	33
6 Comparative probabilistic logic	38
7 Rules of valuation	51
8 Cognitive approaches	59
9 The information content of a hypothesis	67
10 Epistemic utility	70
11 Expected epistemic utility	77
12 Rules of acceptance in case of cognitive consonance	82
13 Reasoning strategies	86
14 Three examples	89
15 Agreement in case of cognitive dissonance	94
16 Some other conceptions	99
17 Veritas filia temporis	104
Appendix	105
1 The formulation of plausible inferences in alethic modal logic	105
2 Possibilities offered by many-valued logic	108
3 Possibilities offered by the M_4 1 calculus	114
4 The comparison of scientific hypotheses	118
Bibliography	145