

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	7
Introduction	9
PART 1	11
The History of bande dessinée	13
1. From the Nineteenth Century to the 1960s: bande dessinée Becomes a Children's Medium, and then Starts to Grow Up	15
2. The 1970s: Expansion and Experimentation	25
3. The 1980s: Recuperation by the Mainstream	33
4. From the 1990s to the Twenty-First Century: The Return of the Independent Sector	49
PART 2	71
Analytical Frameworks	73
5. The Codes and Formal Resources of bande dessinée	75
6. Narrative Theory and bande dessinée	103
7. Bande dessinée as Postmodernist Art Form	125
PART 3	147
A Cultural Studies Approach to bande dessinée	149

8. National Identity	151
9. Postcolonial Identities	165
10. Social Class and Masculinity	179
PART 4	197
Bande dessinée and subjectivity	199
11. Psychoanalytic Approaches to Tintin	201
12. Autobiography and Diary Writing in bande dessinée	215
13. Gender and Autobiography	229
Notes	243
Appendix	247
Bibliography	249
Index	265

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	7
Introduction	9
PART 1	11
The History of bande dessinée	13
1. From the Nineteenth Century to the 1960s: bande dessinée Becomes a Children's Medium, and then Starts to Grow Up	15
2. The 1970s: Expansion and Experimentation	25
3. The 1980s: Recuperation by the Mainstream	33
4. From the 1990s to the Twenty-First Century: The Return of the Independent Sector	49
PART 2	71
Analytical Frameworks	73
5. The Codes and Formal Resources of bande dessinée	75
6. Narrative Theory and bande dessinée	103
7. Bande dessinée as Postmodernist Art Form	125
PART 3	147
A Cultural Studies Approach to bande dessinée	149

8. National Identity	151
9. Postcolonial Identities	165
10. Social Class and Masculinity	179
PART 4	197
Bande dessinée and subjectivity	199
11. Psychoanalytic Approaches to Tintin	201
12. Autobiography and Diary Writing in bande dessinée	215
13. Gender and Autobiography	229
Notes	243
Appendix	247
Bibliography	249
Index	265