

Wealth and the
Demand for Art in Italy
1300–1600

RICHARD A. GOLDTHWAITE

The Johns Hopkins University Press
Baltimore and London

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction i

The Economic Background ii

THE LEVEL OF WEALTH	13
Economic Performance. Political Transfers. The Accumulation of Wealth.
THE STRUCTURE OF WEALTH	40
Urban Concentration. Social Distribution and Redistribution. The Rich Get Richer.
DECLINE AND CONCLUSION	62

The Demand for Religious Art 69

THE CONSUMPTION MODEL	72
Liturgical Apparatus. Pictorial Forms.
VARIABLES OF CONSUMER BEHAVIOR	81
Institutional Proliferation within the Church. Lay Demand for Services.
THE MATERIAL CULTURE OF THE CHURCH AND INCIPIENT CONSUMERISM	129
The Expansion and Filling Up of Liturgical Space. The Internal Dynamics of Demand. The Generation of Pictorial Culture.

Demand in the Secular World 149

ITALY AND TRADITIONAL CONSUMPTION HABITS	150
The Feudal Model. The Model in Italy.
URBAN FOUNDATIONS OF NEW CONSUMPTION HABITS	176
The Civic World of Architecture. Concepts of Nobility. Attitudes toward Wealth.
THE CULTURE OF CONSUMPTION	212
Architecture. Domestic Furnishings.
CONSUMPTION AND THE GENERATION OF CULTURE	243

Index 257