

Decolonization and Conflict

Colonial Comparisons and Legacies

Edited by
Martin Thomas and Gareth Curless

Bloomsbury Academic
An imprint of Bloomsbury Publishing Plc

B L O O M S B U R Y
LONDON • OXFORD • NEW YORK • NEW DELHI • SYDNEY

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
Introduction: Decolonization, Conflict and Counter-insurgency Martin Thomas and Gareth Curless	1
1 Seeing Like a Soldier: The Amritsar Massacre and the Politics of Military History Kim A. Wagner	23
2 Confronting Revolt in France's Interwar Empire: Counter-insurgency in 1920s Morocco and Syria Martin Thomas	39
3 The Plantation as Counter-insurgency Tool: Indonesia 1900–50 Roel Frakking	57
4 The Sten Gun is Mightier than the Pen: The Failure of Colonial Police Reform after 1945 Gareth Curless	79
5 'A Litigious Island': Law, Rights, and Counter-insurgency during the Cyprus Emergency Brian Drohan	99
6 'A Battle in the Field of Human Relations': The Official Minds of Repressive Development in Portuguese Angola Miguel Bandeira Jerónimo	115
7 Strategic Villages: Forced Relocation, Counter-insurgency and Social Engineering in Kenya and Algeria, 1952–62 Moritz Feichtinger	137
8 Reconsidering Women's Roles in the Mau Mau Rebellion in Kenya, 1952–1960 Katherine Bruce-Lockhart	159
9 The Art of Counter-insurgency: Phase Analysis with Primary Reference to Malaya (1948–60), and Secondary Reference to Kenya (1952–60) Karl Hack	177
10 Rebel Sanctuaries and Late Colonial Conflict: The Case of West Germany during Algeria's War of Independence, 1954–62 Mathilde von Bülow	197
11 David Galula and Maurice Papon: A Watershed in COIN Strategy in de Gaulle's Paris Emmanuel Blanchard and Neil MacMaster	213