

Contents

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Acknowledgements   | ix  |
| Introduction   | 1   |
|    |     |
| 1 Mortality and Immortality                                    | 9   |
| The obscuring of death and decay                               | 9   |
| Immortality and the denial of death                            | 14  |
| Words against death  | 19  |
| Strategies of immortalization                                  | 25  |
| Concluding comments  | 33  |
|    |     |
| 2 Death, Transgression and the Sacred                          | 37  |
| The sacred, the profane, transgression and death               | 39  |
| Liminality and pissing people off                              | 45  |
| Death and subcultural capital                                  | 47  |
| Death chic, youth culture and the romanticization of mortality | 49  |
| The impure sacred  | 52  |
| Concluding comments  | 57  |
|    |     |
| 3 The Undead and the Uncanny                                   | 61  |
| Mortality and the uncanny                                      | 62  |
| Music and uncanny affective space                              | 64  |
| Memory and memento mori                                 | 70  |
| Hauntology, spirit voices and exorcisms                        | 73  |
| Can the world be as sad as it seems?                           | 79  |
| Grotesque bodies   | 87  |
| Concluding comments  | 93  |
|    |     |
| 4 Morbidity, Violence and Suicide                              | 97  |
| A vortex of summons and repulsion                              | 98  |
| Thanatos, survival and schadenfreude                    | 100 |
| Suicidal tendencies  | 105 |
| Disaffection, violence and death                               | 117 |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| The pornography of gore, violence and death | 124 |
| Living on death row                         | 127 |
| Concluding comments                         | 134 |
| 5 Transfiguration, Devotion and Immortality | 137 |
| A note on myth                              | 138 |
| Transcendence and transfiguration           | 139 |
| Recorded immortality                        | 145 |
| Pilgrims and dead rock stars                | 147 |
| Kinetic rituals                             | 151 |
| Concluding comments                         | 154 |
| Notes                                       | 157 |
| Bibliography                                | 187 |
| Index                                       | 211 |