
Contents

Introduction
A.W.N. Pugin and his Historiography Timothy Brittain-Catlin, Jan De Maeyer and Martin Bressani	7
PUGIN AND PUGINISM IN EUROPE
Pugin – The French Connection Stephen Bann	16
Notre-Dame de Bonsecours (1840-1844) and the Catholic Context of the French Gothic Revival Jessica Basciano	32
The True Disciple Jean-Baptiste Bethune and A.W.N. Pugin: A Summary of a Complex Relationship Gilles Maury	42
PUGINISM IN THE AMERICAS AND THE PACIFIC
Adapting Pugin’s True Principles to Canada William Hay’s Architectural Theory Candace Iron	54
Meanings of Gothic in Atlantic Canada, c. 1840-1890 Peter Coffman	64
The Roman Catholic Churches of Joseph Connolly (1840-1904) The Adaptation of A.W.N. Pugin’s True Principles and Aspects of Irish Identity in Ontario Malcolm Thurlby	76
The American Pugins Ralph Adams Cram and Bertram Goodhue Cameron Macdonell	94
Richard Upjohn and the Gothic Revival in Antebellum Alabama Stephen McNair	106
From Late Gothic to Gothic Revival in Latin America Richard A. Sundt	118

Global Gothic Karen Burns	130
Gothic In Extremis Missions, Mediation, and the Case of the Patteson Memorial Chapel in the South Pacific G. A. Bremner	142
Pugin Worldwide From Les Vrais Principes and the Belgian St Luke Schools to Northern China and Inner Mongolia Thomas Coomans	156
REEVALUATING PUGINISM IN BRITAIN
Architectural and Scientific Principles in the Design of the Palace of Westminster Henrik Schoenefeldt	174
The (In)dignity of Labour Craft, Contrasts and Conflict in Pugin's Gothic Revival Alex Lawrey	200
A.W.N. Pugin's "True Principles" Gothic Furniture Evolutionary, Revolutionary, Reactionary? Peter N. Lindfield	214
Shaping the Darks Ruskin's "Energetic Shadow" Stephen Kite	228
Bibliography	240
Index of persons	252
Colophon	255