

Nature, Culture and Religion at the Crossroads of Asia

Edited by
Marie Lecomte-Tilouine

Contents

Introduction	2
Marie Lecomte-Tilouine

PART I HINDUISM, BUDDHISM, ISLAM AND SHAMANISM

At the Articulation of Nature and Artifice: The Rite	32
Charles Malamoud

Nature and Culture in Tibetan Philosophy	48
Stéphane Arguillère

Allah, Saints and Men in Islam: Diverging Conceptions of Nature in Theology, Mysticism and Law	60
Marc Gaborieau

Variations in Shamanist Siberia	86
Roberte N. Hamayon

PART II HIMALAYAN CASE STUDIES

To Be More Natural than Others: Indigenous Self-determination and Hinduism in the Himalayas	118
Marie Lecomte-Tilouine

Subjectivity and Governance in the Himalayan Environment	156
Ben Campbell

Political Aspects of the Territorial Cult among the Mewahang Rai	190
Martin Gaenszle

'Wilderness of the Civilization': Knowledge and Perception of the Jad Pastoral Community Subhadra Mitra Channa	222
Love and Vengeance in Indus Kohistan Claus Peter Zoller	244
Conceptions on Tibetan Relics Rachel Guidoni	260
Plant Growth Processes and Animal Health in Northwest Yunnan Andreas Wilkes	284
Terrace Cultivation and Mental Landscapes in Southern Yunnan Pascal Bouchery	318
The Sacred Confluence, Between Nature and Culture Chiara Letizia	344
Contributors	370
Index	374