

Contents

1	Employment Contracts and Well-Being among European Workers Introduction Kerstin Isaksson, Nele De Cuyper & Hans De Witte	1
2	Employment Contracts – How to Deal with Diversity? Nele De Cuyper, Hans De Witte & Kerstin Isaksson	15
3	Psychological Contracts – How to Deal with Complexity? Nele De Cuyper, Hans De Witte & Kerstin Isaksson	35
4	Temporary Employment in Belgium: Is it Really Precarious? Nele De Cuyper & Hans De Witte	51
5	German Flexibility: Loosening the Reins without Losing Control Thomas Rigotti & Gisela Mohr	75
6	Employment Contracts and Psychological Contracts in Israel Moshe Krausz & Noga Stainvartz	103
7	Temporary Employment in the Netherlands: Between Flexibility and Security Jeroen de Jong & René Schalk	119
8	Current Evidence Concerning Employment Contracts and Employee/Organizational Well-Being among Workers in Spain Amparo Caballer, Inmaculada Silla, Francisco Gracia & Jose Ramos	153
9	Work-Related Well-Being and Job Characteristics among Temporary Workers in Sweden Claudia Bernhard-Oettel & Kerstin Isaksson	177
10	Contracting in the UK: Current Research Evidence on the Impact of Flexible Employment and the Nature of Psychological Contracts David E. Guest & Michael Clinton	201
11	Temporary Employment in Europe: Conclusions Nele De Cuyper, Hans De Witte & Kerstin Isaksson	225
	Index	245