

Contents

Introduction: The Rhine, Europe's Frontier, Europe's Dreamland:
Transnational Destination, Inspiration, Disputation XI

PART 1

Case Studies in Geopolitics, Romanticism and Travel

- 1 Victor Hugo's Le Rhin: French National Perspectives on a European River 3
Manfred Beller
- 2 The Symbolical and Political Investment of the Rhine: A Dutch Perspective 14
Joep Leerssen
- 3 Italian Travellers in the Rhineland in the First Half of the Nineteenth Century 28
Giovanna Cermelli
- 4 English Middle-Rhine Tourism in Late-eighteenth and Nineteenth-century Literature 46
Hans Werner Breunig
- 5 North American Travellers in the Rhine Valley: Revisions of Their Perspectives on the Landscape and on Sites of Memory in the Contested Region 78
Waldemar Zacharasiewicz
- 6 Goethe's Art Travels in the Rhine Regions 1814–1817 and His Concept of Decentralized Collections 101
Helmut J. Schneider
- 7 Restored Future: A Panorama of the Castles, Churches and Monuments on the Confluence of Rhine and Nahe 113
Manfred Beller
- 8 The Rhine as a Symbol: Aspects, Meanings and Functionalization of a Memory Landscape 133
Elmar Scheuren

- 9 The Walhalla: Bavarian Integration Monument, Germanic Hall of Fame, Expression of European Patronage 168
Reinhard Baumann

PART 2

A History of Appropriations

- 10 From the Meuse to the Rhine: A Disputed Region in French and German Atlases and Encyclopaedias 185
Manfred Beller
- 11 The Never-ending Stream: Cultural Mobilization over the Rhine 224
Joep Leerssen
- 12 Literary Appropriations of the Rhine: A German–French Repertory, 1814–1925 262