

Rizal and the Emergence of the Philippine Nation

Fr. José S. Arcilla, S.J.

OFFICE OF RESEARCH AND PUBLICATIONS
ATENEO DE MANILA UNIVERSITY
LOYOLA HEIGHTS, QUEZON CITY

Table of Contents

I. THE COMING OF THE EUROPEANS
All for Pepper!	1
Prince Henry and Columbus	3
Ferdinand Magellan	8
Across the Pacific Ocean	14
Legazpi Comes to the Philippines	20
The Conquest of the Philippines	25
II. THE NEW COLONY
Indigenous Society	31
Patronato Real de Indias	37
Organs of Government	42
Gradual Transformation of Indigenous Society	47
The First Governors General	51
The First Twenty Years Summarized	55
III. HISPANIZATION
Missions and Missionaries	61
Early Economy	69
The Galleon Trade	73
Roots of Philippine Culture	81
Initial Economic Reforms	89
The Moro Problem	94
IV. THE NINETEENTH CENTURY
The Human Factor	103
The Economic Factor	112
Modernization	123
GOMBURZA	130
The Cavite Mutiny	139
Possible Masonic Intervention in the Cavite Mutiny	148
V. THE BIRTH OF A NATION
Early Signs of Nationalism	155
Jose Rizal	166
Noli Me Tangere And Other Propaganda Writings	177
The End of the Propaganda	194
The Philippine Revolution	208
Philippine Nationalism	218