

Contents

Introduction	vii
Lecture 1. Commerce, Wealth and Power: The Disputed Foundations of the Strength of a Nation	1
Lecture 2. Natural Order, Physiocracy and Reform	15
Lecture 3. Adam Smith I: Outline of a Project	33
Lecture 4. Adam Smith II: The Two Texts	49
Lecture 5. The Political Economy of Malthus and Ricardo	77
Lecture 6. Political Economy in Continental Europe and the United States	95
Lecture 7. Political Economy, Philosophic Radicalism and John Stuart Mill	107
Lecture 8. Popular Political Economy: List, Carey, Bastiat and George	123
Lecture 9. Radical Political Economy: Marx and His Sources	137
Lecture 10. Marginalism and Subjectivism: Jevons and Edgeworth	153
Lecture 11. From Political Economy to Economics	169
Lecture 12. Alfred Marshall's Project	185
Lecture 13. Markets and Welfare after Marshall	199
Lecture 14. Monetary Economics	215
Lecture 15. The Rise of Mathematical Economics	231
Lecture 16. Robbins's Essay and the Definition of Economics	247
Lecture 17. John Maynard Keynes	261
Lecture 18. Quantitative Economics	275
Lecture 19. The Keynesian Revolution	289
Lecture 20. Modern Macroeconomics	303

CONTENTS

Lecture 21. Inflation and the Phillips Curve	319
Lecture 22. Popular Economics	331
Lecture 23. Economics and Policy	345
Lecture 24. Ideology and Place	359
Index	373