

Marius-Mircea Crişan
Editor

Dracula

An International Perspective

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

- “Welcome to My House! Enter Freely and of Your Own Free Will”:
Dracula in International Contexts 1
Marius-Mircea Crişan
- The Casework Relationship: Le Fanu, Stoker and the Rhetorical Contexts of Irish Gothic 21
William Hughes
- The Discourse of Italy in Nineteenth Century Irish Gothic: Maturin’s Fatal Revenge, Le Fanu’s Exotic Tales, and *The Castle of Savina 39
Donatella Abbate Badin
- “Bloodthirsty and Remorseless Fangs”:
Representation of East-Central Europe in Edgar Allan Poe’s Gothic Short Stories 53
Lucian-Vasile Szabo and Marius-Mircea Crişan
- Spirited Away: Dream Work, the Outsider, and the Representation of Transylvania in the Pied Piper and Dracula Myth in Britain and Germany 69
Sam George

Count Dracula's Address and Lifetime Identity Hans Corneel de Roos	95
Dracula and the Psychic World of the East End of London Clive Bloom	119
Tourism and Travel in Bram Stoker's Dracula Duncan Light	139
Castle Hunedoara and the Dracula Myth: Connection or Speculation? Marius-Mircea Crişan	157
Location and the Vampire: The Impact of Fictional Stories upon Associated Locations Kristin L. Bone	179
In Search of Dracula's Oracular History John Edgar Browning	195
Vampiric Emotion and Identity in Dracula and Interview with the Vampire Nancy Schumann	213
Gothic and Horror in Contemporary Cinema and Television: Aesthetic Experience and Emotional Impact Magdalena Grabias	227
Papa Dracula: Vampires for Family Values? Dorota Babilas	243
The Evolution of Gothic Spaces: Ruins, Forests, Urban Jungles Carol Senf	259
Index	275