Contents

I Introduction 1

Part One. The Structure and Ordering of Ends

II Means and Ends 7

A Straw Man 7
The Complexity of Ends 11
The Concept of Rational Ends 14
Explicit and Implicit Principles 19

III Rational Ends and Their Principles 26

The Rationality of Rational Ends 27
Kinds of Rational Ends 34
Particular Ends and General Principles 36

IV The Principle of Morality 40

The Principle of Morality Introduced 41
The Principle of Morality as the Most General Principle Applicable to Relations with Other Persons 45

Why Should We Be Moral? 55
Justice and the Obligations of Fairness.
The Rawlsian System 61

V Love, Friendship, and Trust 75

Moral Feelings 75
Love 77
Friendship 80
Trust 81
Love, Friendship, Trust, and the Ordering of Ends 84

VI The System of Ends: The Concept of the Life Plan 87

Knowledge as a Rational End 88
Art 90
Instinctual Ends 91
Survival 94
Relations and Priorities among Ends 95
The Concept of the Life Plan 97

Part Two. Rational Ends and Social Structures

VII The Concept of Society 105

A Sketch of Parsons' System 106
Sociological and Normative Theory 109
Society as a System of Ends 112

VIII Law as a Means and as an End 116

The Intrinsic Value of Law 116
Rules of Law and Expressive Relations 123
Expressive Aspects of Criminal Procedure 125
The Legal Profession 132
Law and Morals 135

IX Privacy: A Rational Context 137

An Immodest Proposal: Electronic Monitoring 138
Privacy and Personal Relations 140

The Concrete Recognition of Privacy 144
The Concept of Privacy Applied to the Problem of Monitoring 147
The Role of Law 150

Part Three. Life and Death

X Life Plans and Mortality 155

Time and Identity 158
Change and Uncertainty 162
Death 166
The Shape of the Life Plan 169
The Concept of the Risk Budget 177

XI Imposing Risks on Others 183

The General Theorem 183
The Concept of the Risk Pool 187
Ordinary and Grave Risks 191
Obligations 194
Some Further Limitations on the Risk Pool: Kidney Banks and Life Rafts 200

XII The Value of Life 207

The Problem of Statistical Lives 207
Some Entailments of Maximizing 210
Some Invalid Arguments 214
Fairness 218
The Personalist Argument 222
How One Dies 227
The Primacy of the Concrete 233

Notes 239

Index 261