

CONTENTS

PREFACE . . . . .		xi
CHAPTER ONE:	INTRODUCTION IN PURSUIT OF ANSWERS: VARYING RESPONSES TO THE MODERN MORAL PROBLEMATIK . . . . .	1
	An Overview: A description of the Problematik . . . . .	2
	Survey of varying solutions to the Problematik . . . . .	7
CHAPTER TWO:	ALASDAIR MACINTYRE'S AFTER VIRTUE , A CATEGORICAL EXPOSITION . . . . .	21
	The categorical approach as a means to exposit and evaluate After Virtue . . . . .	22
	The category of history . . . . .	23
	The category of sociology . . . . .	34
	The category of the sociopoliti- cal/socioeconomic . . . . .	43
	The category of the moral philosophical. . . . .	47
CHAPTER THREE:	PSYCHOLOGY AS A SUPPLEMENTAL CATEGORY. . . . .	53
	Introduction: The necessity of the psychological task . . . . .	54
	Alasdair MacIntyre and the psychological perspective. . . . .	58
	My own psychological analysis . . . . .	64
CHAPTER FOUR:	A PSYCHOLOGY OF VIRTUE: THE MORAL PSYCHOLOGY OF DAVID HUME . . . . .	81
	David Hume as an antidote to the Problematik : Descriptions and Problems . . . . .	82
	My own appropriation and modern- ization of Hume. . . . .	113