

Contents

Notes on contributors	ix
Foreword	xvii
KENNETH HEWITT

PART I

Critical men's studies and disaster	1
1 The gendered terrain of disaster: thinking about men and masculinities	3
ELAINE ENARSON AND BOB PEASE
2 Masculinism, climate change and "man-made" disasters: toward an environmental profeminist response	21
BOB PEASE
3 Men and masculinities in the social movement for a just reconstruction after Hurricane Katrina	34
RACHEL E. LUFT
4 Hyper-masculinity and disaster: the reconstruction of hegemonic masculinity in the wake of calamity	45
DUKE W. AUSTIN
5 Rereading gender and patriarchy through a "lens of masculinity": the "known" story and new narratives from post-Mitch Nicaragua	56
SARAH BRADSHAW

PART II

The high cost of disaster for men: Coping with loss and change 67

6 Men, masculinities and wildfire: embodied resistance and rupture 69

CHRISTINE ERIKSEN AND GORDON WAITT

7 Emotional and personal costs for men of the Black Saturday bushfires in Victoria, Australia 81

DEBRA PARKINSON AND CLAIRE ZARA

8 The tsunami's wake: mourning and masculinity in Eastern Sri Lanka 92

MALATHI DE ALWIS

9 Japanese families decoupling following the Fukushima Nuclear Plant disaster: men's choice between economic stability and radiation exposure 103

RIKA MORIOKA

PART III

Diversity of impact and response among men in the aftermath of disaster 115

10 Disabled masculinities and disasters 117

MARK SHERRY

11 Masculinity, sexuality and disaster: unpacking gendered LGBT experiences in the 2011 Brisbane floods in Queensland, Australia 128

ANDREW GORMAN-MURRAY, SCOTT MCKINNON
AND DALE DOMINEY-HOWES

12 Indigenous masculinities in a changing climate: vulnerability and resilience in the United States 140

KIRSTEN VINYETA, KYLE POWYS WHYTE AND KATHY LYNN

13 Youth creating disaster recovery and resilience in Canada and the United States: dimensions of the male youth experience 152

JENNIFER TOBIN-GURLEY, ROBIN COX, LORI PEEK, KYLIE PYBUS, DMITRIY MASLENITSYN AND
CHERYL HEYKOP

PART IV	163
Transforming masculinity in disaster management
14 Firefighters, technology and masculinity in the micro-management of disasters: Swedish examples	165
MATHIAS ERICSON AND ULF MELLSTRÖM
15 Resisting and accommodating the masculinist gender regime in firefighting: an insider view from the United Kingdom	175
DAVE BAIGENT
16 Using a gendered lens to reduce disaster and climate risk in Southern Africa: the potential leadership of men's organizations	186
KYLAH GENADE
17 Training Pacific male managers for gender equality in disaster response and management	197
STEPHEN FISHER
18 Integrating men and masculinities in Caribbean disaster risk management	209
LEITH DUNN
19 Men, masculinities and disaster: an action research agenda	219
ELAINE ENARSON
Afterword	234
RAEWYN CONNELL
Index	237