

Contents

Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction MARY SHANAHAN	1
PART I
The distinctness of religious education	5
1 A space like no other JOHN SULLIVAN	7
2 What sort of school religious education is needed? And why is it so important today? GRAHAM ROSSITER	25
3 Interpreting ‘between privacies’: Religious education as a conversational activity SANDRA CULLEN	37
PART II
Religious education in the school context	49
4 Does religious education matter? What do teachers say? ROS STUART-BUTTLE	51
5 Living the questions: The spirituality of the RE teacher according to Henri J.M. Nouwen DAVID TOREVELL	65
6 Going below the surface of Grow in Love: Some of the theological presuppositions in the new Catholic religious education primary programme for Ireland DANIEL O’CONNELL	76

7 Eclipses and reclamations: The question of religion in educational experience	88
PÁDRAIG HOGAN
8 Does religious education matter to teachers in Catholic primary schools? Concerns and challenges	101
FIONA DINEEN AND DAVID LUNDIE
9 Religious education in Catholic second-level schools in Ireland today: An invitation to love, understanding, commitment, hospitality, and dialogue	114
GARETH BYRNE
10 The role of religious education teachers: Perspectives from the field	130
HAFIZ PRINTER AND ARZINA ZAVER
11 Reclaiming our 'Own selves': Fragmentation, Christian religious education, and the new junior cycle	141
AMALEE MEEHAN
12 Does religious education matter in non-denominational schools in Scotland?	152
STEPHEN J. MCKINNEY AND RAYMOND MCCLUSKEY
 PART III
Exploring the potential of religious education	167
13 Democracy, political salvation, and the future of religious education	169
L. PHILIP BARNES
14 Existential thought between ethics and religion as related to curriculum: from Kierkegaard to Sartre	184
JONES IRWIN
15 Religious education and emerging technologies: A post-worldview Flâneur	194
JAMES E. WILLIS AND VIKTORIA A. STRUNK
16 Religious education through an experiential lens: Inclusivity and subjectivity in the writing and literature classroom	203
GAVIN F. HURLEY
17 Educational exclusion: A fundamental layer of social exclusion	215
ALI SELIM

18 Religious education in an ecclesiological perspective	225
ANNE CODD
19 Religion in the Latina/o community: History, identity, and conscientisation through religious education	235
JOÃO CHAVES
20 Lessons for religious educators from the ‘Good teacher’ (Luke 18:18) of the Synoptic Gospels	247
DIANE CORKERY
Contributors	259
Index	269