
Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: A Monumental Story 1

Civilization and the East 9

Colonialism and History 13

The Boundaries of the Nation 17

1. The Universalizing Winds of Civilization 23

Internal Disorder, External Calamities 24

Globalizing the National and Nationalizing the Global 32

The Pundits of the Nation 38

The Eyes and Ears of the Nation 47

2. Decentering the Middle Kingdom and Realigning the East 55

Demoting China 56

Authentic Culture, Pure Identities 60

The Language of Nationalism 64

From King to Emperor 72

A National Flag 78

A Lost Korean and Eastern Civilization 80

Peace and Unity in a Racially Defined East 86

The Disintegration of Eastern Solidarity 92

3.	Engaging a Civilizing Japan	101
	The Authority of Japan	103
	A Nationalist Dialogue	113
	Images of the yangban	121
	The Dangers of Sadaejuüi	129
	Colonial Denouement	136
4.	Spirit, History, and Legitimacy	139
	A Spirited Nation	140
	From Ancient Imperial Myths to Modern Colonizing Myths	146
	Contentious Histories	154
	Japanese Colonialism on the International Stage	160
5.	Narrating the Ethnic Nation	171
	National Etymologies	172
	Legitimacy as a National Narrative	175
	History as Genealogy	180
	The State of History	188
	From Man to God	192
6.	Peninsular Boundaries	199
	Bordering China	201
	A Public Border	211
	The Decline of Geomancy and Mount Paektu	216
7.	Beyond the Peninsula	224
	A Korean Manchuria	226
	Irredentist Voices	233
	The Diasporic Nation	236
	Turning the Nation Inside Out	240
	Custodians of the Nation	246
	Epilogue	253
	Language Purity	257
	Toward a Postcolonial History	261
	Northward Gaze	270
	Notes	279
	Bibliography	337
	Index	359