

Table of Contents

---

Premise.....	7
--------------	---

ANDREA A. CONTI

Part I: Some Features of the Renaissance Context

Introduction .....	11
1. Humours and the Body .....	17
2. Pestilences and Diseases.....	25
3. Medical Interventions and Preparations .....	39
4. Practitioners .....	45
5. Institutions, Medical Progress and Health Care .....	49

LUISA CAMAIORA

Part II: A Reading of Five Comedies of Shakespeare

Note on the Chronology of the Comedies .....	65
1. Undifferentiated Diagnoses in The Comedy of Errors : Reliance on Visual Evidence.....	67
2. Logorrhoeic Symptoms in Love's Labour's Lost : Indigestion of Words.....	95
3. The Chameleon Syndrome in The Two Gentlemen of Verona : Mutation In Love.....	135
4. Homoeopathic Necessity in The Taming of the Shrew : Interactive Therapy.....	151
5. Tempers and Distempers in The Merry Wives of Windsor : Variable Humours .....	177

Bibliography.....	213
-------------------	-----

Bibliography of Part I .....	213
Bibliography of Part II.....	227