
Routledge Handbook of Chicana/o Studies

Edited by Francisco A. Lomelí, Denise A. Segura, and Elyette Benjamin-Labarthe

Contents

List of illustrations	xiv
Notes on contributors	xv
Acknowledgements	xx

Introduction: Handbook of Chicana/o Studies Francisco A. Lomelí, Denise A. Segura, and Elyette Benjamin-Labarthe	1
---	---

PART I

Chicana/o history and social movements 11

Introduction to Chicana/o history and social movements	11
1 What is Aztlán? homeland, quest, female place David Carrasco	13
2 Chicana/o history: a generational approach Mario T. García	27
3 Recent Chicana/o historiography: advances, shortcomings, and challenges Alex M. Saragoza	43
4 The Chicano movement Ramón A. Gutiérrez	57
5 A genealogy of Chicana history, the Chicana movement, and Chicana Studies Miroslava Chávez-García	67
6 Bilingual education: history, policy, and insights from critical race theory Grace P. McField	81

PART II
Borderlands: contested (im)migrations, culture, and citizenship	99
Introduction to borderlands: contested (im)migrations, culture, and citizenship	99
7 México y lo Mexicano in Aztlán: a study of transborder economic, cultural, and political links	101
David R. Maciel and María Rosa García-Acevedo
8 Immigration, Latinas/os, and the media	115
Leo R. Chávez
9 Mobilizing for life: illegality, organ transplants, and migrant biosociality	126
Jonathan Xavier Inda
10 Discourses of violence and peace: about and on the U.S.–Mexico border	138
María Socorro Tabuenca
11 Reconstructing home in the borderlands	154
Patricia Zavella
 PART III
Cultural production in local and global settings	165
Introduction to cultural production in local and global settings	165
12 Colonial, de-colonial, and transnational choreographies in ritual danzas and popular bailes of Greater Mexico	167
Enrique R. Lamadrid
13 The challenge of Chicana/o music	181
Steven Loza
14 Chicana/o literature’s multi-spatiotemporal projections and impacts; or back to the future	193
Frederick Luis Aldama
15 From Don Juan to Dolores Huerta: foundational Chicana/o films	204
Catherine Leen

16	Origins and evolution of Homies as hip Rasquache cultural artifacts: taking the Homies out of the barrio or the barrio out of the Homies Francisco A. Lomelí	216
PART IV
	Indigeneity, mestizaje, postnationalism, and transnationalism: overarching phenomena of interdisciplinarity	227
	Introduction to Indigeneity, mestizaje, postnationalism, and transnationalism: overarching phenomena of interdisciplinarity	227
17	The embodied epistemology of Chicana/o mestizaje Rafael Pérez-Torres	229
18	New tribalism and Chicana/o Indigeneity in the work of Gloria Anzaldúa Domino Renee Pérez	242
19	“Aztlán es una fábula”: navigating postnational spaces in Chicana/o culture Marc Priewe	255
20	Regional singularity and decolonial Chicana/o Studies Lene M. Johannessen	268
21	Transnationalism Chicana/o style Karin Ikas	281
PART V
	Chicana/o identities and political expressions	295
	Introduction to Chicana/o identities and political expressions	295
22	Narrative identity and the dialectics of selfhood in Chicana/o writings Sophia Emmanouilidou	297
23	The challenge of colorism in the Chicana/o community Margaret Hunter	308
24	Bilingualism and biculturalism: Spanish, English, Spanglish? Cecilia Montes-Alcalá	318

25	The landscapes and languaging of Chicana feminisms Aída Hurtado	332
26	The aesthetics of healing and love: an epistemic genealogy of jota/o aesthetic traditions William A. Calvo-Quirós	347
PART VI
Violence, resistance, and empowerment		357
	Introduction to violence, resistance, and empowerment	357
27	The art of disruption: Chicana/o art's politicized strategies for aesthetic innovation Guisela Latorre	359
28	Resisting the dominant Anglo American discourse: political activism and the art of protest Astrid M. Fellner and Claire M. Massey	373
29	Spanish-language media: from politics of resistance to politics of pan-ethnicity Xavier Medina Vidal and Federico Subervi-Vélez	386
30	Transnational incest: sexual violence and migration in Mexican families Gloria González-López	400
PART VII
International perspectives on Chicana/o Studies: from Aztlán to shores abroad		417
	Introduction to international perspectives on Chicana/o Studies: from Aztlán to shores abroad	417
31	Chicana/o Studies in France: emergence and development Elyette Benjamin-Labarthe	419
32	Chicana/o Studies and Inter-American Studies in Germany Gabriele Piszcz-Ramírez	431
33	The reception of Chicana/o literature and culture in Italy: a survey Erminio Corti	443

34	A trans-Atlantic look at Chicana/o culture and literature from a Spanish perspective José Antonio Gurpegui	460
	Index	473