

ADVANCING THE
LEARNING AGENDA
IN JEWISH EDUCATION

Edited by
JON A. LEVISOHN
and JEFFREY S. KRESS

Boston
2018

C
R
C

Table of Contents

Introduction: What the “Learning Agenda” Is and Why It Matters	1
Jon A. Levisohn and Jeffrey S. Kress

PART ONE

Learning from the Learning Sciences 9

Activating Jewish Learners: Positioning Youth for Persistent Success in Jewish Learning and Living	9
--	---

Rena Dorph and Christian D. Schunn

Fostering Identity and Disposition Development in Jewish Education: A View from the Learning Sciences	27
---	----

Janet L. Kolodner

Learning about Learning in Jewish Education	51
---	----

Ari Y. Kelman

Old Traditions, New Practices: A Proposal for a Return to Text Study as a Centerpiece of Jewish Community and Family Life	71
---	----

Daniel P. Resnick and Lauren B. Resnick

PART TWO

Learning from Jewish Education 93

Observing Havruta Learning from the Perspective of the Learning Sciences	93
---	----

Baruch Schwarz

Learning the Whole Game of Shabbat	112
------------------------------------	-----

Joseph Reimer

What We Can Learn about Learning from Holocaust Education	129
---	-----

Simone Schweber

PART THREE

Conceptualizing Learning Outcomes	141
Is this a Real Story? Learning Critical History and Learning Its Limits	141
Sam Wineburg
Learning to be Jewish	159
Eli Gottlieb
The Holistic Goals of Jewish Education	177
Gil G. Noam and Jeffrey S. Kress
Subject-Specific Learning Versus Jewish-Developmental Outcomes in Jewish Education: What Should We Aim For?	199
Jeffrey S. Kress and Jon A. Levisohn
Index	215