

Diva Nation

Female Icons from Japanese Cultural History

EDITED BY

Laura Miller and
Rebecca Copeland

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA PRESS

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
Preface: Transnational and Time-Travelling Divas Laura Hein	xi
Diva Seductions: An Introduction to Diva Nation Laura Miller and Rebecca Copeland	1
1. Kirino Natsuo Meets Izanami: Angry Divas Talking Back Rebecca Copeland	13
2. Ame no Uzume Crosses Boundaries Tomoko Aoyama	34
3. Searching for Charisma Queen Himiko Laura Miller	51
4. Izumo no Okuni Queers the Stage Barbara Hartley	77
5. From Child Star to Diva: Misora Hibari as Postwar Japan Christine R. Yano	95

6. Yoko Ono: A Transgressive Diva Carolyn S. Stevens	115
7. Transbeauty IKKO: A Diva's Guide to Glamour, Virtue, and Healing Jan Bardsley	133
8. Seizing the Spotlight, Staging the Self: Uchida Shungiku Amanda C. Seaman	151
9. The Unmaking of a Diva: Kanehara Hitomi's Comfortable Anonymity David Holloway	168
10. Ice Princess: Asada Mao the Demure Diva Masafumi Monden	185
Afterword: Diva tte nan desu ka? (What Is a Diva?) Rokudenashiko (Translated by Kazue Harada)	203
Bibliography	207
Contributors	229
Index	233