

Contents

Contributors	vii
Preface and Acknowledgements	xiii
Introduction Christopher Stroud	1
Part 1: Language Rights and Linguistic Citizenship
1 Linguistic Citizenship Christopher Stroud	17
2 Essentialism and Language Rights Lionel Wee	40
3 Commentary – Unanswered Questions: Addressing the Inequalities of Majoritarian Language Policies Stephen May	65
Part 2: Educating for Linguistic Citizenship
4 Affirming Linguistic Rights, Fostering Linguistic Citizenship: A Cameroonian Perspective Blasius A. Chiatoh	75
5 Education and Citizenship in Mozambique: Colonial and Postcolonial Perspectives Feliciano Chimbutane	98
6 Paths to Multilingualism? Reflections on Developments in Language-in-Education Policy and Practice in East-Timor Estêvão Cabral and Marilyn Martin-Jones	120
7 Language Rights and Thainess: Community-based Bilingual Education is the Key Suwilai Premsrirat and Paul Bruthiaux	150

8	Commentary – Linguistic Citizenship: Who Decides Whose Languages, Ideologies and Vocabulary Matter? Kathleen Heugh	174
Part 3: Linguistic Citizenship in Resistance and Participation
9	Citizenship Theory and Fieldwork Practice in Sri Lanka Malay Communities Umberto Ansaldo and Lisa Lim	193
10	Linguistic Citizenship in Sweden: (De)Constructing Languages in a Context of Linguistic Human Rights Tommaso M. Milani and Rickard Jonsson	221
11	Linguistic Citizenship in Post-Banda Malawi: A Focus on the Public Radio and Primary Education Gregory Kamwendo	247
12	Making and Shaping Participatory Spaces: Resemiotization and Citizenship Agency in South Africa Caroline Kerfoot	263
13	Commentary – On Participation and Resistance Ana Deumert	289
	Index	300