

Investment Fund Taxation

Domestic Law, EU Law, and Double Taxation Treaties

Edited by

Werner Haslehner

Summary of Contents

Editor	v
Contributors	vii
Introduction Werner Haslehner	1
PART I Funds Taxation: National Law and Policy	7
CHAPTER 1 Introduction to Investment Funds Law Isabelle Riassetto	9
CHAPTER 2 Investment Funds Taxation in Luxembourg Eric Fort & Philipp Jost	39
CHAPTER 3 VAT and Investment Funds Charlène A. Herbain & Marie-Isabelle Richardin	63
CHAPTER 4 Transparent, Semi-transparent, Opaque: Recent Developments in Fund Taxation in Germany Heribert M. Anzinger	83
PART II Funds Taxation and European Union Law	111

Summary of Contents

CHAPTER 5 Taxation of Collective Investments Within the Legal Framework of State Aid Claire Micheau	113
CHAPTER 6 Funds Taxation and the Third-Country Dimension Keith O'Donnell & Uljana Molitor-March	127
CHAPTER 7 Investment Fund Taxation and Fundamental Freedoms: Four Approaches to Comparability Mario Tenore	145
CHAPTER 8 Funds and EU Tax Directives Katerina Pantazatou	157
PART III Funds in International Tax Law and Policy	179
CHAPTER 9 Non-collective Investment Funds under BEPS Action 6 Versus European Investment Fund Law Dirk A. Zetzsche	181
CHAPTER 10 Treaty Entitlement of Funds in the Pre-BEPS World Daniel Dürschmidt	197
CHAPTER 11 Funds in International Tax Law: Examples from Luxembourg's Treaties Jean Schaffner	225
CHAPTER 12 Treaty Entitlement of Funds in the Post-BEPS World Keith Lawson	243
CHAPTER 13 Non-discrimination of Funds and Double Taxation Relief Daniel Gutmann	271
CHAPTER 14 Practical Tax Aspects of Fund Structuring in Luxembourg Geoffrey Scardoni	281

Table of Contents

Editor	v
Contributors	vii
Introduction
Werner Haslehner	1
I Investment Fund Taxation: A Multifaceted Topic	1
II Overview of the Contents	2
PART I
Funds Taxation: National Law and Policy	7
CHAPTER 1
Introduction to Investment Funds Law
Isabelle Riassetto	9
§1.01 Introduction	9
§1.02 Sources of Investment Fund Law	12
[A] European Union	12
[B] Luxembourg	14
§1.03 Creation of an Investment Fund	15
[A] Legal Structures of the Investment Fund	15
[1] UCITS Legal Structures	15
[2] AIF Legal Structures	16
[B] Location of the Investment Fund	16
[C] Object of the Investment Fund	17
[1] UCITS	17
[2] AIF	17
[D] Minimal Financial Requirements to Create an Investment Fund	19
[E] Investors of the Investment Fund	20

Table of Contents

	[1]	Categories of Investors	20
	[2]	Number of Investors	21
	[3]	Investor Rights	22
[F]		Units or Shares of the Investment Fund	23
	[1]	Classes of Units or Shares	23
	[2]	Listed Units or Shares	24
[G]		Investment Funds Specific Organization	24
	[1]	Compartments of Investments	24
	[2]	Master Funds and Feeder Funds	24
[H]		Authorization or Registration of the Investment Fund	25
§1.04		Life of the Investment Fund	26
[A]		Assets of the Investment Fund	26
	[1]	Eligible Assets	26
	[2]	Safekeeping of the Assets	27
[B]		Management of the Fund	29
	[1]	Manager of the Fund	30
	[2]	Management of the Portfolio	32
	[3]	Risk and Liquidity Management	33
[C]		Administration of the Investment Fund	34
[D]		Marketing of the Investment Fund's Units or Shares	34
[E]		Supervision of the Investment Fund	35
	[1]	The Competent Authority's Supervision	35
	[2]	Depositary's Supervision	35
[F]		Investment Funds End of Life	36
	[1]	Investment Fund Liquidation	36
	[2]	Investment Fund Mergers	36
CHAPTER 2
Investment Funds Taxation in Luxembourg
Eric Fort & Philipp Jost
§2.01		Introduction	39
§2.02		Historical Background of Taxation of Investment Funds	40
	[A]	The System of Capital Duty and Subscription Tax	42
	[B]	An Independent Tax System for UCIs under the 1983 UCI Law	42
§2.03		Overview: Luxembourg Investment Vehicles	44
	[A]	The Corporate-Product Level	44
		[1] UCITS	45
		[2] AIFs	45
		[3] Legal Structure	47
§2.04		Fiscal Regime for Luxembourg Regulated and Non-regulated Investment Funds	48
	[A]	Taxation at the Time of the Constitution of an Investment Fund	49

[B]	Taxation During the Course of the Existence of the Investment Fund	49
[1]	UCITS and Part II UCIs	49
[2]	SIFs	51
[3]	RAIFs	51
[4]	SICARs	52
	[a] Corporate Form	52
	[b] Partnership	53
[5]	Non-regulated Investment Funds	54
	[a] Corporate Form	54
	[b] Partnership	56
[6]	NWT	57
[C]	Taxation of a UCI in the Event of Dissolution, Merger, Demerger, Conversion of Legal Form, or Any Similar Circumstances	58
[D]	Taxation of Management Companies	59
[E]	Taxation of Investors	60
[1]	UCIs	60
	[a] Income Taxation of Investors Qualifying as Luxembourg Non-residents	60
	[b] Income Taxation of the Investors Qualifying as Luxembourg Residents	61
[2]	Non-regulated Investment Funds	62
CHAPTER 3
VAT and Investment Funds
	Charlène A. Herbain & Marie-Isabelle Richardin	63
§3.01	Introduction	63
§3.02	VAT Status of Investment Funds	64
[A]	Directive and CJEU Case Law	64
[B]	Luxembourg Tax Authorities' Analysis	65
	[1] The Entities	66
	[2] Points of Attention	67
§3.03	The Consequences of VAT Status	69
[A]	Registration and Compliance Obligations	69
	[1] Place of Supply	70
§3.04	Scope of the VAT Exemption	71
[A]	Investment Funds Covered by the VAT Exemption	71
	[1] CJEU Principles	71
	[2] Funds Covered by the VAT Exemption According to the VAT Law	72
	[a] UCITS, SIFs, SICARs, and Pension Funds Subject to the Supervision of a Luxembourg Regulator	72

Table of Contents

	[b]	Vehicles Similar to the Ones Referred to in Point [a] Established in Another EU Member State and Subject to Supervision by a Supervisory Body	73
	[c]	Securitization Vehicles	75
	[d]	Alternative Investment Funds (AIFs)	75
	[3]	Services Covered by the VAT Exemption	76
	[a]	Services Falling Within the Scope of the VAT Exemption	76
	[b]	Services Excluded from the Scope of the VAT Exemption	79
§3.05		VAT Recovery	80
§3.06		Conclusion	81
CHAPTER 4
Transparent, Semi-transparent, Opaque: Recent Developments in Fund Taxation in Germany
Heribert M. Anzinger			83
§4.01		Introduction	83
§4.02		History of German Fund Taxation	84
	[A]	Corporate Taxation: Transparency or Double Tax Burden	84
	[B]	Semi-transparency and Special Tax Regimes	85
§4.03		Current Fund Taxation Rules	87
	[A]	Separation and Transparency	87
	[B]	Income Qualification and Time Shift	87
	[C]	Withholding Tax	88
	[D]	Reporting Requirements and Lump Sum Taxation	88
§4.04		Reasons for Reform	89
	[A]	Fragility	89
	[B]	Complexity	90
	[C]	EU-Law Uncertainties	90
§4.05		Discussed Reform Options	92
	[A]	Minimally Invasive Surgery	92
	[1]	Clarifying the Link Between Tax Exemption and Tax Burden	92
	[2]	Tax Credit Instead of Tax Exemption at the Entrance Level	93
	[3]	Simplification of the Current System	93
	[B]	Fundamental Reform Ideas	93
	[1]	Deferred, Final Levy of Tax at Disposal of Units	93
	[2]	Approximation and Rejection of the Tax-Transparency Principle	94

§4.06	Core Elements of the Revised German Investment Tax Law	95
	[A] Materials and Implementation	95
	[B] Scope and Concept of Investment Funds	96
	[C] Domestic and Foreign Funds	97
	[D] Two Systems in One Code	97
	[E] Basic Principles of Investment Fund Taxation	98
	[1] Corporate and Trade Tax	98
	[2] Investor-Related Tax Exemptions	98
	[3] Tax Base	99
	[4] Treaty Entitlement	100
	[F] Investor Taxation	101
	[1] Distributions, Dispositions, and Redemptions	101
	[2] Treaty Override	102
	[3] Base-Yield Lump Sum (Pre-determined Tax Base or Vorabpauschale)	102
	[4] Partial Income Method (Partial Exemptions)	103
	[5] EU-Law Conformity	103
	[G] Special Investment Funds	104
	[1] Taxation-Related Product Regulation	104
	[2] The Transparency Option	105
	[3] Default Opaque Tax Regime	106
	[4] No Need for a Reform?	107
§4.07	Transition Rules	107
§4.08	Conclusions	108
PART II
	Funds Taxation and European Union Law	111
CHAPTER 5
	Taxation of Collective Investments Within the Legal Framework of State Aid
	Claire Micheau	113
§5.01	Introduction	113
§5.02	Brief Overview of State-Aid Rules	114
§5.03	The Distinctive Feature of Collective Investment Vehicles	116
§5.04	Economic Activity for Investment Funds under State-Aid Law	117
§5.05	The Key Issue of Selectivity	119
	[A] Defining the General Reference Framework	119
	[B] Derogation from the Reference Framework	121
	[C] The Relevance of the Justification by the Logic of the Tax System	121
§5.06	Conclusion	124

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 6

Funds Taxation and the Third-Country Dimension

Keith O'Donnell & Uljana Molitor-March

		127
§6.01	Introduction	127
§6.02	Key CJEU Decisions	131
	[A] Orange Smallcap	131
	[B] Aberdeen	133
	[C] Santander	134
	[D] Emerging Markets	136
	[E] Miljoen	137
	[F] Key Conclusions	139
§6.03	A Review of National Court Decisions	139
	[A] Finland	139
	[B] Sweden	140
	[C] Poland	141
	[D] Conclusions	142
§6.04	What's Next?	143

CHAPTER 7

Investment Fund Taxation and Fundamental Freedoms: Four Approaches to Comparability

Mario Tenore

		145
§7.01	Introduction	145
§7.02	The ACT GLO/Denkavit Approach: The Aberdeen Case	146
§7.03	The Distinguishing Criterion Approach	148
§7.04	The Aim Approach	150
§7.05	The Regulatory Framework Approach	153
§7.06	Conclusions	155

CHAPTER 8

Funds and EU Tax Directives

Katerina Pantazatou

		157
§8.01	Introduction	157
	[A] Setting the Scene: Background	159
	[B] 'Funds-Specific Directives' and Their Contribution	159
§8.02	The Parent-Subsidiary Directive	161
§8.03	The Anti-Tax Avoidance Directive	165
§8.04	The Automatic Exchange of Tax Information	169
§8.05	The AMLD: Tax Repercussions for Funds	171
§8.06	The Tax Merger Directive	172
§8.07	Conclusion	177

PART III

Funds in International Tax Law and Policy

179

CHAPTER 9
Non-collective Investment Funds under BEPS Action 6 Versus European Investment Fund Law
Dirk A. Zetsche		181
§9.01	Introduction	181
§9.02	The OECD's Approach	182
§9.03	The Financial Law's View of Investment Funds	184
	[A] Investment Fund as Network of Contracts	184
	[B] Economic Rationale	185
	[C] Minimum Substance as Precondition of the Investment Triangle	187
	[D] Investor Passivity as Precondition of the Investment Triangle	189
	[E] Irrelevance of the Legal Form as Precondition of the Investment Triangle	190
§9.04	A Financial Law Solution to BEPS Item 6 Definitional Issues	191
	[A] Designing the LOB Rule with a View to the 'Widely Held' Criterion	191
	[B] Role of the PPT Rule	194
	[C] And One Step Further ...	195
§9.05	Conclusions	195
CHAPTER 10
Treaty Entitlement of Funds in the Pre-BEPS World
Daniel Dürschmidt		197
§10.01	Introduction	197
§10.02	Overview of the Application of Tax Treaties to a CIV	201
	[A] General Remarks	201
	[B] Treaty Entitlement (Personal Scope of Application)	202
	[C] Distributive Rules, Including the Beneficial Ownership Concept	202
	[D] Methods for the Avoidance of Double Taxation	204
§10.03	Treaty Entitlement and Beneficial Ownership of a CIV under General Tax-Treaty Provisions	205
	[A] General Remarks	205
	[B] CIV as a 'Person'	205
	[C] CIV as a 'Resident of a Contracting State'	206
	[D] CIV as the Beneficial Owner	213
	[E] Treaty Entitlement of Investors	214
§10.04	Special Tax Treaty Provisions for CIVs Related to Treaty Entitlement and Beneficial Ownership	215
	[A] General Remarks	215
	[B] Content of Special Tax Treaty Provisions	215
	[C] Weaknesses of Special Tax Treaty Provisions for CIVs, Exemplified by the Provisions in the Germany/Luxembourg Tax Treaty	218

Table of Contents

§10.05	Conclusion and Impact of EU Law and the G20/OECD Project Confronting BEPS	222
CHAPTER 11
Funds in International Tax Law: Examples from Luxembourg's Treaties
Jean Schaffner
§11.01	Introduction	225
§11.02	SICAVs	227
§11.03	Collective Investment Funds (FCPs)	230
§11.04	Express Provisions in Tax Treaties	232
§11.05	The New OECD Approach	239
§11.06	Practical Issues	241
§11.07	Outlook	242
CHAPTER 12
Treaty Entitlement of Funds in the Post-BEPS World
Keith Lawson
§12.01	Introduction	243
§12.02	What Has Changed?	245
[A]	The OECD's CIV Report	245
[1]	Putting the CIV Report (and BEPS Action 6) in Context	245
[2]	Some High-Level Observations about the CIV Report	246
[3]	A Quick Review of the Optional Provisions Added to the Commentary	248
[B]	BEPS Action 6	250
[1]	The Government Mindset and the BEPS Action 6 Objectives	250
[2]	The Specific Action 6 Requirements	251
[a]	In General	251
[b]	The LOB Rule	251
[c]	The PPT Rule	252
[3]	The Treatment of CIVs under Action 6	252
[a]	The LOB Rule	252
[b]	The PPT Rule	253
[C]	The Increased Focus on the Financial Services Industry and on Funds	256
§12.03	Overarching Industry Themes	257
[A]	Certainty	258
[1]	The Importance of Certainty	258
[2]	Factors That Lead Funds to Book a Treaty Claim (or Not)	259
[3]	Getting Clarity	259

	[B]	Neutrality	260
	[C]	Practical Solutions	261
	[D]	Support for the CIV Report's Recommendations and TRACE Implementation	262
§12.04		Governmental Concerns	262
	[A]	'Treaty Negotiator' Tax Policy-Related Concerns	262
		[1] The 'Preserving the Ability to Negotiate a Treaty' Concern	262
		[2] The (Related) 'Treaty Shopping' Concern	263
		[3] The 'Deferral' Concern	264
		[4] The 'Equivalent Beneficiary' Concern	264
	[B]	'Technical Requirement' Concerns	265
	[C]	'Administrative' Concerns	265
		[1] The 'Revenue' Concern	265
		[2] The Proof Concern: AKA 'Reliable Solutions'	265
§12.05		The Way Forward	266
	[A]	In General	266
	[B]	Implement the CIV Report	266
	[C]	Implement TRACE	268
	[D]	Clarify the PPT Rule's Application to Funds	268
	[E]	Final Thoughts	269
CHAPTER 13
Non-discrimination of Funds and Double Taxation Relief
		Daniel Gutmann	271
§13.01		Introduction	271
§13.02		The Perspective of the Source State	272
§13.03		The Perspective of the Residence State	278
	[A]	Transfer of Tax Credit to Investors	278
	[B]	Refund of the Withholding Tax to the Fund	279
§13.04		Conclusion	280
CHAPTER 14
Practical Tax Aspects of Fund Structuring in Luxembourg
		Geoffrey Scardoni	281
§14.01		Introduction	281
§14.02		Overview of General Tax Aspects of Fund Structuring	282
	[A]	Proposed Case Scenario	282
	[B]	General Tax Aspects to Be Considered	282
		[1] Preliminary Analysis	283
		[a] Choosing a Fund Vehicle	283
		[b] Choosing a Holding Vehicle for Investments	284
	[C]	Domestic Tax Considerations	284
		[1] Repatriation Structure	284

Table of Contents

	[2]	Corporate Taxation of a Luxembourg Acquisition/Holding Vehicle	285
	[3]	Arm's Length Remuneration for the Management Company and the Investment Advisors	285
	[4]	Value Added Tax Treatment of Management and Advisory Services	285
[D]		International Tax Considerations	285
	[1]	International Tax Considerations of the Targeted Assets	286
	[2]	Foreign AIFM	286
	[3]	Deductibility of Interest and Hybrid Mismatches	286
[E]		International Tax Considerations for the Investors	287
	[1]	Preliminary Analysis	287
	[a]	Choosing a Fund Vehicle	287
	[i]	Tax Neutrality Derived from the Legal Nature of the Vehicle	288
	[ii]	Tax Neutrality Derived from Specific Tax Regimes	288
	[iii]	Tax Neutrality Derived from an Exemption for Specific Types of Income	288
	[b]	Choosing a Holding Vehicle	289
[F]		Domestic Tax Considerations	290
	[1]	Financing Structure	290
	[2]	Taxation of a Luxembourg Holding/Acquisition Vehicle	292
	[a]	Corporate Income Tax	292
	[b]	Net Wealth Tax	294
	[c]	Participation Exemption Regime	294
	[3]	Funding HoldCo	295
	[a]	Arm's Length Remuneration for the General Partner/AIFM/Advisors	295
	[i]	VAT Treatment of Management and Advisory Services	295
[G]		International Tax Considerations	300
	[1]	Tax Considerations of the Jurisdictions Where the Targeted Assets Are Located	300
§14.03		Foreign AIFM	301
	[A]	Investor Tax Considerations	301
	[B]	Fund Structure Chart for Our Case	302