

Africana Jewish Journeys:

Studies in African Judaism

Edited by

Marla Brettschneider, Edith Bruder
and Magdel Le Roux

Cambridge
Scholars
Publishing

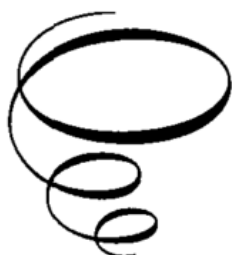

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements vii

Introduction viii

Marla Brettschneider, Edith Bruder, Magdel Le Roux

Contributors..... xvii

Part One: Myths and Misrepresentations

Chapter One..... 2

Black Philo-Semitism Versus Racial Myths

Edith Bruder

Chapter Two 19

Make Way for the New Normative: A New Paradigm for Approaching
African Judaism

Sar Ahmadiel ben Yehuda

Chapter Three 37

The Long Way Home: Living as an African American Jew in a Time of Turmoil

Carol B. Conaway

Chapter Four..... 49

Misrepresentation of Jewish Social Organization in Kerala, India through Models of Race, Caste and Slavery

Barbara C. Johnson

Part Two: Islands and “Insularity”

Chapter Five 64

Anti-Colonialism and Jewish Women in Madagascar

Marla Brettschneider

Chapter Six	78
Popular Reflections of Israelite Genealogy in Madagascar: Dissociating Bio-Racial Signifiers from Mainstream Jewish Religious Practice
Nathan P. Devir
Chapter Seven.....	91
Recapturing Jewish Roots in Cabo Verde: Changing Diasporic Identities
Alma Gottlieb
Chapter Eight.....	106
Concentric Circles of Jewish/Israelite Identity in Sub-Saharan Africa
William F.S. Miles
Part Three: New Directions in Lemba Studies
Chapter Nine.....	124
Lemba and other Perspectives on Great Zimbabwe and Mapungubwe
Magdel Le Roux
Chapter Ten	142
Naming Practices among Vhalemba/Basena of South Africa
Tom Sengani
Chapter Eleven	157
A Discussion of Lemba Traditions, Observed and Abandoned
Oded Hams Maramwidze
Part Four: Politics and Resistance
Chapter Twelve	172
The Politics of Relocation of Ethiopian Jews
Yvonne Crenshaw
Chapter Thirteen.....	185
Judaism is Home to Africans
Cornet Alexandre Zouko
Chapter Fourteen	202
The Tradition of Israelite Descent among the Pashtuns in India and its Ramifications
Navras Jaat Aafreedi	