
Routledge Handbook of African Literature

Edited by Moradewun Adejunmobi and Carli Coetzee

Contents

List of contributors	ix
1 Introduction Moradewun Adejunmobi and Carli Coetzee	1
PART I
Mapping Political Agencies	19
2 'Children of the Cold War': Rethinking African literary generations through the global conflict Monica Popescu	21
3 Ethics and the politics of the ordinary in African literature Chielozona Eze	35
4 Globalisation, mobility and labour in African diasporic fiction Anna-Leena Toivanen	47
5 Towards an ethics of the humanitarian imagination Allison Mackey	60
PART II
Journeys, Geographies, Identities	73
6 Decolonising the Afropolitan: Intra-African migrations in post-2000 literature Rebecca Fasselt	75
7 History, imperial eyes and the 'mutual gaze': Narratives of African-Chinese encounters in recent literary works Ying Cheng	92

Contents

8	Ethnicity in post-2000 African writing Aghogho Akpome	110
9	Mythopoesis of the self: Nation, textuality and the writer as political hero Rotimi Fasan	124
PART III
Working through Genres		137
10	How to be a writer in your 30s in Lagos: Self-help literature and the creation of authority in Africa Rebecca Jones	139
11	Gothic supernaturalism in the 'African imagination': Locating an emerging form Rebecca Duncan	154
12	Contested filial voice in African female-authored autobiographies Marciana Nafula Were	170
13	'I can't go forward; I must go back': Ben Okri's (p)anachronistic utopias Ian P. MacDonald	186
PART IV
The World of and beyond Humans		201
14	African literature, audience and the search for the (non)human Cajetan Iheka	203
15	Dirty ecology: African women and the ethics of cultivation Sarah L. Lincoln	215
16	African fictions, animal figures and anthropocentric frameworks Jesse Arseneault	231
17	Depictions of Kenyan lands and landscapes by four women writers Ng'ang'a Muchiri	244

PART V
Everyday Sociality	259
18 Geopolitical and global topologies in fiction: Islam at the fault lines in Africa and the world Shirin Edwin	261
19 Appetite and everyday life in African literature Delores B. Phillips	276
20 'Foundational fictions': Variations of the marriage plot in Flora Nwapa's early Anglophone-Igbo novels F. Fiona Moolla	290
21 Drinking scenes: Alcohol in the Francophone African novel Pim Higginson	305
PART VI
Bodies, Subjectivities, Affect	321
22 Desire and freedom in Yvonne Vera's fiction Grace A. Musila	323
23 The forms of shame and African literature Naminata Diabate	339
24 Scattered testimony: Locating the Rwandan genocide in transnational witnessing Martina Kopf	354
25 Contestations through same-sex desire in Jennifer Nansubuga Makumbi's Kintu Edgar F. Nabutanyi	369
PART VII
Literary Networks	383
26 The Story Club: African literary networks offline Stephanie Bosch Santana	385
27 Language and prizes: Exploring literary and cultural boundaries Doseline Kiguru	399

Contents

28	Publishers' networks and the making of African literature: Locating communities of readers and writers Kate Wallis	413
29	Literary networks in the Horn of Africa: Oromo and Amharic intellectual histories Sara Marzagora and Ayele Kebede	429
	Index	443