

Leeds and its Jewish community

A history

Edited by

DEREK FRASER

Manchester University Press

Contents

List of figures	page ix
List of tables	xii
Notes on contributors	xiii
Preface	xvi
List of abbreviations	xviii
List of Hebrew/Yiddish terms used in the text	xix
Introduction	1
Part I The context
1 National: Jews in Britain – a historical overview Geoffrey Alderman	9
2 Local: Leeds in the age of great cities Derek Fraser	23
3 Demographic: The Jewish population of Leeds – how many Jews? Nigel Grizzard	35
Part II The chronology
4 Jews as Yorkshiremen: Jewish identity in late Victorian Leeds James Appell	49
5 Britishness and Jewishness: integration and separation Aaron Kent	63

6	Pragmatism or politics: Leeds Jewish tailors and Leeds Jewish tailoring trade unions, 1876–1915 Anne J. Kershen	83
7	The Edwardian Jewish community and the First World War Nigel Grizzard	100
8	Zionism in Leeds 1892–1939 Janet Douglas	113
9	The unwallled ghetto: mobility and anti-Semitism in the interwar period Amanda Bergen	125
10	The Second World War Ian Vellins	149
 Part III The contours of the Leeds Jewish community
11	Jewish heritage in Leeds Sharman Kadish	175
12	Fellowship and philanthropy Derek Fraser	215
13	At rest and play: leisure and sporting activities Phil Goldstone	235
14	The influence of personalities Michael Meadowcroft	267
15	Spaces of Jewish belonging Irina Kudenko	294
16	The community today and its recent history Derek Fraser	311
	Index	333