

MORE TIME

CONTEMPORARY SHORT
STORIES AND LATE STYLES

LEE CLARK MITCHELL

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Table of Contents

Introduction: Bulwarks of Silence	I
I. Story History and Requirements	3
II. Richard Ford and Memory	9
III. Jhumpa Lahiri and Revelation	13
IV. Raymond Carver: Whose Style?	17
V. Genre and Late Style	23
VI. Chapter by Chapter	28
VII. Conclusion, Disruptions	35
1. Bewilderment in Dear Life	38
I. Displacements and Architectonics	41
II. Earlier Patterns	50
III. Bewilderment and Sequence	55
IV. Mysteries of Character	60
V. Designs, Developments, Versions	64
VI. Conclusion, Understanding	71
2. Trauma in Dancing After Hours	77
I. Rejiggering Expectations	79
II. Earlier Enactments	82
III. Revelations of Violence	88
IV. Opening Strategies	94
V. Against Expectations	102
VI. Conclusion, Pre-Modernist?	109
3. Disjointedness in The Visiting Privilege	113
I. Indeterminacies of Narrative	117
II. Early Tiltings at Consciousness	121
III. Towards Death	129
IV. Death, Silence, Stylization	140
V. Incomprehension	146
VI. Conclusion, Macabre Swerves	151

4. Less Time in Can't and Won't	153
I. Crucial Trivial Considerations	158
II. At Their Simplest: Flash, Dreams, and After Flaubert	163
III. Grammar, Philosophy, Letters To	172
IV. Stylistic Suasions	178
V. Conclusion, Verbal Concoctions	185
 Epilogue: Silence and Slow Time	 188
 Bibliography	 193
Index	203