

SHAKESPEARE'S EARLY READERS

A Cultural History from 1590 to 1800

JEAN-CHRISTOPHE MAYER

French National Centre for Scientific Research (CNRS)

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of Illustrations	page viii
Acknowledgements	xi
Conventions and Abbreviations	xiv
Introduction	I
1 Literacy and the Circulation of Plays	14
2 Life in the Archives: Shaping Early Modern Selfhood	44
3 Readers and Editors: A Concordia Discors	73
4 Early Modern Theatrical Annotators and Transcribers	106
5 Commonplacing: The Myth and the Empirical Impulse	137
6 Passing Judgement on Shakespeare	174
Conclusion	226
Select Bibliography	230
Index	251