

The Aesthetics of the Undersea

Edited by Margaret Cohen and Killian Quigley

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of contributors	x
Acknowledgments	xiii
“Diving into the Wreck” by Adrienne Rich	xiv
Introduction: Submarine aesthetics	1
MARGARET COHEN AND KILLIAN QUIGLEY
1 The aesthetics of the early modern grotto and the advent of an empirical nature	14
LUIS RODRÍGUEZ RINCÓN
2 The porcellaneous ocean: Matter and meaning in the rococo undersea	28
KILLIAN QUIGLEY
3 The logic of the invisible: Perceiving the submarine world in French Enlightenment geography	42
HANNA ROMAN
4 Understanding the loss of colour	54
JONATHAN LAMB
5 Hydromania: The social history and literary significance of Romantic swimming	67
ROBIN JARVIS
6 The great melancholy mother: Michelet’s evolutionary ocean in The Sea	83
NATALIE DEAM

7	“The Forsaken Merman,” “The Little Mermaid,” and early modernism: Undersea imagery for the dissociation and dissolution of culture	97
	SAMUEL BAKER
8	Encountering living corals: A nineteenth-century scientist and artist reveals the underwater realm	111
	IAIN MCCALMAN
9	Frank Hurley and the symbolic underwater	124
	ANN ELIAS
10	The shipwreck of reason: The Surrealist diver and modern maritime salvage	137
	SEAN THEODORA O’HANLAN
11	The shipwreck as undersea gothic	155
	MARGARET COHEN
12	Deep time and myriad ecosystems: Urban imaginaries and unstable planetary aesthetics	167
	LINDA WILLIAMS
13	Siren and silent song: Evolution and extinction in the submarine	180
	JOSH WODAK
14	The ocean hospital – a walk around the ward	191
	JANET LAURENCE AND PRUDENCE GIBSON
	Works cited	209
	Index	224