

AS/A Level

DOCTOR FAUSTUS

CHRISTOPHER MARLOWE

Oxford
Literature
Companions

*Notes and activities: Graham Elsdon
Series consultant: Peter Buckroyd*

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Introduction 4

Plot and Structure 6

Versions of the play	6
Plot	6
Structure	20

Marlowe's beliefs	24
The English Faust Book	25
Religious context	26
The Renaissance and the individual	30
Magic	32

Morality plays	34
Doctor Faustus as tragedy	36
Doctor Faustus : morality play or tragedy?	42

Characterisation and Roles 44

Main characters	44
Minor characters	59

Language 60

Analysing language: an example	60
The energy of Marlowe's verse	63
Elevated language	64
Irony and polysemy: the danger of words	66
Symbolism and imagery	67
Comedic prose	69
Soliloquy	70

Themes	72
Power	72
The power of religion	74
The power of evil	78
The role of the individual	79
Appearance and reality	80
Performance	82
Script and staging decisions	82
Performance history: different productions	83
Performance as a reading	85
Concepts underpinning performance	87
Performing spectacle	91
Filmed versions of the play	92
Critical Views	94
Reading positions and approaches	94
Beginning to apply critical views	96
Interpreting Faustus: further views	97
Interpreting farce	98
Interpreting narrative	100
Interpreting universal experience	101
Interpreting disunity	102
Developing your own readings	103
Skills and Practice	104
Exam skills	104
Planning and structuring an answer	107
Writing convincing introductions	108
Choosing quotations	109
Sample answers	110
Writing about extracts	113
Sample questions	117
Glossary	118