

---

Routledge International Handbook of Memory Studies

Anna Lisa Tota and Trever Hagen

Contents

---

List of illustrations	ix
List of contributors	xi
Acknowledgements	xix
Emilio Del Giudice: Renaissance man and scientist of the highest distinction	xxi
Gerald H. Pollack
Introduction: memory work – naming pasts, transforming futures	1
Anna Lisa Tota and Trever Hagen
PART I
Theories and perspectives	7
1 Rethinking the concept of collective memory	9
Barry Schwartz
2 Reconceptualizing memory as event: from “difficult pasts” to “restless events”	22
Robin Wagner-Pacifici
3 Pierre Nora’s Les Lieux de mémoire thirty years after	28
Patrick H. Hutton
4 Sites of memory studies (Lieux des études de mémoire)	41
Jeffrey K. Olick
5 Against memory	53
Jeffrey Goldfarb
6 Cultural memory studies: mediation, narrative, and the aesthetic	65
Ann Rigney

PART II

Cultural artifacts, symbols and social practices 77

- 7 Social movements and memory 79
Ron Eyerman
- 8 Banal commemoration 84
Vered Vinitzky-Seroussi
- 9 Organizational memories: a phenomenological analysis 93
Thomas S. Eberle
- 10 Memory, time and responsibility 109
Carmen Leccardi
- 11 Memories of the future 121
Paolo Jedlowski
- 12 Housing spirits: the grave as an exemplary site of memory 131
Hans Ruin

PART III

Public, transnational and transitional memories 141

- 13 Globalization and/of memory: on the complexification and contestation of memory cultures and practices 143
David Inglis
- 14 The afterlife and renaissance of the Plastic People of the (twenty-first-century) Universe: continuity and memory in Bohemia 158
Trever Hagen
- 15 The reciprocal relation of scandal to collective memory 168
Mark D. Jacobs
- 16 Antigone in León: the drama of trauma politics 181
Alejandro Baer and Natan Sznaider
- 17 Urban spaces, city cultures, and collective memories 193
Kevin Loughran, Gary Alan Fine, and Marcus Anthony Hunter
- 18 Digital trauma archives: the Yellow Star Houses Project 205
Gabriella Ivacs

PART IV
Technologies of memory	219
19 Cultural heritage: tangible and intangible markers of collective memory Diane Barthel-Bouchier	221
20 Remembering through music: Turkish diasporic identities in Berlin Pinar Güran-Aydin and Tia DeNora	233
21 Cinema and memory studies: now, then and tomorrow Carrie Collenberg-Gonzalez	247
22 Memory and future selves in futurist dystopian cinema: The Road (2010) and The Book of Eli (2010) E. Ann Kaplan	259
23 “The mirror with a memory”: placing photography in memory studies Olga Shevchenko	272
24 Bone, steel and stone: reification and transformation in Holocaust memorials Zachary Metz	288
25 Walking the autobiographical path: the spatial dimension of remembering in a memoir by Italo Calvino Alessandra Fasulo	311
PART V
Terror, violence and disasters	327
26 Southeast Asia and the politics of contested memories Kwok Kian-Woon and Roxana Waterson	329
27 Japanese war memories and commemoration after the Great East Japan Earthquake Philip Seaton	345
28 Disaster, trauma, and memory Bin Xu	357
29 Memory and the recent past: Chile, from revolution to repression Isabel Torres Dujisin	371

30	An ‘unaccomplished memory’: the period of the ‘strategy of tension’ in Italy (1969–1993) and the Piazza Fontana bombing in Milan Lia Luchetti and Anna Lisa Tota	382
31	Making absence present: the September 11 memorial Alexandra Délano and Benjamin Nienass	398
32	The Madrid 2004 bombing: understanding the puzzle of 11-M’s flawed commemorative process Cristina Flesher Fominaya	414
33	Remembering 7/7: the collective shaping of survivors’ personal memories of the 2005 London bombing Steven D. Brown, Matthew Allen and Paula Reavey	428
	PART VI
	Body and ecosystems	443
34	When memory goes awry Maria I. Medved and Jens Brockmeier	445
35	Dancing the present: body memory and quantum field theory Anna Lisa Tota	458
36	Implicit memory, emotional experience and self-regulation: the heart’s role in raising our consciousness baseline Rollin McCraty	473
37	Cell memory of an ancestral state: going backward across our life span to resume self-healing abilities Carlo Ventura	489
38	Memory of water: storage of information and spontaneous growth of knowledge Emilio Del Giudice, Alberto Tedeschi and Vladimir Voeikov	500
39	The importance of memory in ecology Sven Erik Jørgensen	511
40	Soundscapes as commemoration and imagination of the acoustic past Jan Marontate, Megan Robertson and Nathan Clarkson	519
	Index	533