

Contents

Acknowledgements	viii
Introduction	1
1 'We remain one of the most white, male-dominated industries in the world' (Wenham 2009): The music industry and gender	27
2 'I don't buy expensive clothes, I don't have a particularly great car but I do have some beautiful microphones which I'm really proud of and they sound fantastic and that's so exciting' (Isobel Clarke 2010): Music production and gender	56
3 'A studio of one's own' (Wolfe 2012): Self-production, music technology and gender	93
4 'I've got to trust myself because there's no A&R dad who's gonna take the rap for me' (Little Boots 2013): New industry and gender	124
5 'If I was Queen, I would ban the use of gender before the job title, I would ban female singer-songwriter' (Pallo 2015): Media representation and gender	151
Conclusion	180
Appendices	189
Bibliography	205
Index	222