
THE MEDIEVAL INVENTION OF TRAVEL

SHAYNE AARON LEGASSIE

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS
CHICAGO AND LONDON

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction: Travail and Travel Writing	i
Part One: Subjectivity, Authority, and the “Exotic”	19
1. Exoticism as the Appropriation of Travail	21
2. Travail and Authority in the Forgotten Age of Discovery	59
Part Two: Pilgrimage as Literate Labor	95
3. Memory Work and the Labor of Writing	99
4. The Pilgrim as Investigator	141
Part Three: Discovering the Proximate	165
5. Becoming Petrarch	169
6. The Chivalric Mediterranean of Pero Tafur	203
Coda: Beyond 1500; or, Travel’s Labor’s Lost	227
Notes	231
Index	289